Responsibility claim for incendiary attack on the GAP Athens, 4/1/11

We are at war we are not celebrating...
We have hostages and we act...
Fire, attack, destruction, this is our choice, this is the side we choose...

Because the masks have fallen, because its the moment where the consumerist smiles are too many, the life of plenty, on credit, collapsed.... Hypocrisy and indifference are from now on a conscious attitude.

And we consciously and decisively from the side of the urban guerilla warfare, moved, on the night of friday 31/12/10, around the streets of Psihiko area, welcoming the new year in the GAP shop, contributing to the fireworks of the changing of the year with 2 incendiary devices.

This is our gift to the market and the downfall its taken, something that especially pleases us....

We do not forget the hostages in the cells of democracy. We salute the solidarity gatherings outside the various prisons of the country, on new years eve. We do not forget our comrades and we respond to the call for active solidarity before the upcoming trial for the case of the Revolutionary Organization Conspiracy Cells of Fire.

Now we speak with actions....

P.S. Strength and decisiveness to all those who walk the paths of denial.

COMMANDO FOR ACTIVE SOLIDARITY

Responsibility claim for two-day arson barrage Athens Monday, January 17, 2011

Saturday night 15/1 and Sunday 16/1 we torched:

- bank of Proton Bank in Vironas area
- Local organization of PASOK (ruling party) in Moshato,
- Two vehicles of a security company in Gizi,
- Personal motorbike of a cop who lives in Exarchia (Asimaki Fotila street).

We dedicate these actions to our imprisoned comrades accused in the case of the "Conspiracy of Cells of Fire" and tried as of today in the political court marshal in Koridallios prison. Three of those have taken the political responsibility for the organization, while the others deny their participation, but keep intact their rebelliousness and dignity. We pledge that we will not leave any imprisoned revolutionary alone. These violent acts of resistance are not only fair, but also the duty of every person who puts themselves against a world where exploitation and

injustice reign and money is in charge. The individual agreements and disagreements are to be discussed; what is non-negotiable is: solidarity between individuals and groups who are fighting for freedom in every way and with any means.

Also, towards the new treaty that criminalizes social, political and personal relationships (like in the case of the notorious "safehouse" of Halandri, but recently the case of the four comrades wanted for arson in Thessaloniki), we respond with even more rage and anger, more litres of petrol and butane bottles. Of course, we do not forget the famously disgusting minions of the system, the journalists, who for a salary and a career, mock and step on the freedom and the dignity of our comrades, repeating the lies of the police and presenting various scenarios of their imagination; to try, condemn and destroy lives and reputations, before "civil justice" does it officially. They should know that on this side of the war, memory and honour is in excess, and sooner or later they will pay for the dirty role they have chosen in life.

Finally, we want to say that we chose to act on this theoretically "tough" weekend before the beginning of the trial, when the police have unleashed their obvious and also hidden running dogs, in fear of a new armed attack, to break in this way the terror and fear that the State attempts to impose on society and on people who are fighting. As long as the State is unable to mend the holes of a system that's collapsing, the noose will tighten and the measures will intensify. We must stand strong and act with all our power, until the Revolution and Liberation, social and individual.

Freedom to H.Hadjimihelakis, P. Argyrou, G.Tsakalos who have taken the political responsibility for the "Conspiracy Cells of Fire" and P.Massouras, K.Karakatsani, A.Mitrousias, G.Karagiannidis who are imprisoned for the same case.

Solidarity to all imprisoned anarchists and revolutionaries.

Struggle by any means - Revolution First and Always.

Communique for the 12-13 January arson barrage in Thessaloniki

CELL OF REVOLUTIONARY SOLIDARITY

Responsibility      Communique-Thessaloniki

THE WAR IS ON

Today more than ever, the fortification of Power and its attack against the internal enemy becomes an urgent necessity. Under the fear of the oncoming rebellions and the dynamics that have been developed, mainly in the latest years, the Dominance has to protect its interests and will do it.

So, we 'r leaving in an unprecedented upsurge of repression and control. Their mechanisms of chasing the enemy are being enforced and enriched in both human and technical level, while their legal arsenal expands and becomes more flexible. The new 'anti-terror' law that states thinking as a crime, the super 'bugs' that enter into the depth of personal communication, the thousands recruitments of cops that go up and down the streets are only some of the examples that compose what the power wants to communicate, that it is here and it is everywhere. The power speaks, before to forbid but also imposes itself where the precaution measures don't achieve to prevent the armed consciences that fight it.

Democracy strikes back and takes revenge, has dungeons and prisoners of war. Prisoners that sends around like the wild animals in a cage, having before taken care to deplore by any means their dignity, pieces of their own lives and finally hushed up the depth of their choices, that are not other than the actual opposition against everything that hostiles our own lives.

Of course, in this game, the Power has allies, like the pitiful entourage of the journalists. We never had a doubt about the hypocrisy behind their democratic mask, nor for the pretended polyphony that they invoke. Plus, we 'r not surprised from their upgrade to a vanguard of repression in its most paranoid and delirious version. They were, they are and they will be a para-shop of the police and the anti terror unit.

THE MIND IS THE TARGET

The dominance, as a privileged and main user of massive terror, knows very well that the projection of strength, the fear that it blows into the people, is much more important than the strength itself. The feeling of weakness and vanity of any kind of struggle is much more efficient than any army of cops and every super hitech system of surveillance. It leads to withdrawal and silence. To the consolidation of fear. Fear is cultivated by the power, but it blooms inside us. It has imbued the human existence to the bone and corroded all social relations. Both in the level of social groups to each other and against the dominant ethics, but as well in an individualized level. Fear corrupts the relation between people and condemns them to rot into misery and boredom. But it mainly stops the creation of true relationships. Relationships of solidarity, relationships subversive and dangerous.

SURPASSING PRO-SOCIAL AND ANTI-SOCIAL DIPOLES

The evolution of the revolutionary plan is impossible if we 'r not in a constant search for understanding the social process, thus searching allies and spotting the enemies. We do not consider society as one whole body, generally victimized, submitted or possibly revolutionary. Social relations form a multiplex field, that cannot be interpreted through the ethics of right or wrong, the victim or the im-molator, the Good or the Evil. In them, we watch manifestations of the power itself, deeply rooted and expanded to a point that they 're not visible enough. On the other side, we watch transcendental insurrectionist behaviors and revolutionary consciences to emerge out of this field, ready to look life straight into the eyes... This multiplex mosaic of controversies consists the 'area' where the revolutionary war is taking place.

THE TIME IS NOW AND THE ENEMY IS EVERYWHERE

The 'objective conditions' seem to us very abstract and we won't remain act-less waiting for them to be 'mature'. We don't set longterm targets and we won't speak about a pre-revolutionary period nor for a post-revolutionary society. On the one side because we don't see revolution as one event that takes place in a very particular space and time, but as a continuous evolving process with constantly changing characteristics. On the other side, because we think that the political systems, of any ideological-theoretical gasket, by the time they will have institutionalized themselves as such, they will already be obsolete, and thus, hostile to us.

On the contrary, we propose organization right now. The collectivization of denials through the actual application of our propositions (proposals). The creation of belligerent structures and infra-structures in present tense, that will set in constant motion the revolutionary process of destruction and creation. For the birth of true relations and comradely bonds, through the experience of attack and actual solidarity.

FOR ALL OR FOR NOTHING

The existing reality forms a war zone with thusand explored and unexplored aspects, We spot the enemy in the dif-fused plexus of roles, relations and behaviors. In the mechanisms of repression, the dominant ethics and the blackmale of waged slavery. In the small daily contracts inside us. We reject the partial struggles as condemned to failure. Desiring to touch the wholeness we consider necessary the total multiform attack. We consider attack as the conscious break from the enemy by any means that it may be expressed.

As an integral piece of the very existence of every revolutionary, We don't think that exist generally revolutionary or reformist practices and means. Every act is given a sense from the motives and targetings of the subject that executes it. Armed, can be only the consciences. The hand will always be holding just a tool.

THE DIFFUSED REVOLUTIONARY URBAN GUERRILLA STRUGGLE AS A POSITION OF FIGHT

The guerrilla methods are not something that we drag from history's time-closet. They are practices that are being used, with various characteristics by the revolutionaries in every corner of the planet. The tactics of surprise, the choice of the place and time where the action becomes true is maybe the only -in current conditions- that has the ability to hit the infrastructures and the enemy's staff. We target to sabot the state-capitalist infrastructures as well as to terrorize our enemies, pose a personal threat. We want to make them clear, as clear it is for us, that war happens always with two sides and we, having chosen side, we make the step. In front of the monster of capitalism that rips the human life and dignity, we choose to arm thought, conscience and action.

SOLIDARITY IS A WEAPON

From the mounts of Mexico and the highlands of Andes to the bomb attacks in Chile and the arsons in Belgium there are people decided not to put the head down. The struggle for freedom is their own life, not something out and over it.

The knowledge that in the edge of the world exist people that live and die for the same or close reasons, with the same or similar means, and thus, they possibly share the same or similar feelings, thoughts, fears and dreams with us, is something more than relieving. It is what pushes us to keep on even at the hardest times, fills us with strength and gives us the hope that in the end we 'll win. If we haven't won yet is partially due to the fact that we 're not yet a community, not even a network.

The solid mere academic knowledge is extremely useful in never-ending discussions accompanied with cheap wine. If, however, it doesn't transform into conscience it remains a harmless chatter. And conscience comes exclusively through experience.

Now, more than ever before, exists the necessity for continuation of the struggle by every member of the community. Learning what happens throughout the earth to be a motive, a signal from the worldwide revolutionaries that the warfare is still on. Not just to contribute in a simple update. But to be the point where every revolutionary will recognize him/herself as part of this network and will pass into attack. What would happen, if, for every strike that a member of the community would take, there would be launched international campaigns of anti-information concerning the incident and the revolutionaries all over the world passed into action, forcing the officials of every country not to be able to find a place to hide? This is internationalist solidarity and like this the borders brake.

We perceive solidarity as a dynamic, bilateral and multilevel relationship. Bilateral because it consists of two or more parts that have to experience it equally, breaking the miserable custom of the transmitter and the receiver, the ones that 'makes' solidarity and the one that 'receives' it. Multilevel because the level of its validity depends on how common are the targets, the desires the agonies of those that have it. And dynamic because it always wants to evolve, to find imaginative ways to take flesh and bones.

We think as necessary, for the evolution of the revolutionary plan, the actual application of the proposal for international networking. The creation of a horizontal, diffused and continuously evolving network. A tool of open communication and dialog, as well as a transmitter of ideas and practices among the revolutionaries. So, we include these attacks of ours within the frame of the call for solidarity with the members of the Conspiracy of the Fire Cells on trial, but as well within the formation of an informal anarchist federation based on the proposal of F.A.I. that the Conspiracy of the Fire Cells set in motion again.

On 12 and 13 January we proceeded in a barrage of attacks in the city of Thessaloniki, sending fire signals to our comrades. Thus, we hit:

On the noon of 12 January:

-The office of the journalist and parliament member with LA.O.S. Angelos Kokotronicis. A price from us to him, for his 35 years of serving as chief editor in big newspapers like our well known Snitchdonia (Makedonia) and in many other para-information media, as well as for his extreme right wing beliefs.

-The offices of the Union of retired police officers in Promitheos str.

On the night of 13 January

-2 car vehicles belonging to cops in the region of Peraia.

-A car belonging to the diplomatic corps in Ano Toumpa region.

SOLIDARITY with the urban guerrilla fighters GERASIMOS TSAKALOS-PANAGIOTIS ARGIROU- HARIS HADJIMICHELAKIS, members of the R.O. Conspiracy of the Fire Cells and with all those tried for this case.

FREEDOM to PANAGIOTIS MASOURAS-KONSTANTINA KARAKATSANIGIORGOS KARAGIANNIDIS-ALEXANDROS MITROUSIAS

We never forget our insubordinate brothers DIMITRIS DIMTSIADIS-HARALAMBOS TSILIANIDIS-DIMITRIS FESSAS-SOKRATIS TZIFKAS-GIANNIS SKOULOUDIS and we would like to remind them that the bet of destruction and creation is still on.

Hania, Crete, Greece ~ Responsibility Claim for armoured vehicle

23/1/11 - "Doubt. Refusal. Attack. I dispute and despise the code of values of this society. I refuse to compromise. I attack fiercely everything that limits us, underestimates us, enslaves us. The choice of Revolution, permanent and inalterable Now and Always."

Haris Hadjimihelakis

Historically the state is the evolution of a gang of people, that with as a tool laws, fear, repression with as a pretext safety they aim to achieve the militarisation of their interests, theirs and the bosses. Thus, with the use of violence, physical or not, they try to impose the social conditions of subjugation and solidify social peace. Especially now that the reliability of the political system is decomposing and the capitalistic "bubbles" of "growth" and "prosperity" have burst, the distress of sovereignty for its perpetuation becomes even more evident. It is therefore upgrading its arsenal in order to face the internal enemy. It votes terror laws, it harasses, it represses.

At this moment in the cells of "democracy" there are dozens of anarchists that chose to move into the path of fire and resistance, aiming at the destruction of the state and its mechanisms, until individual and social liberation.

The objective of the state, apart from physical extermination, is also their social isolation. Thus, it does not hesitate to criminalize political, social, even friendly relations. The examples are many with most recent that of Fee Mayer.

"Isolate them!". We have heard it many times from them but also from the parrots of Mass Media taming, commonly journalists. However, they are not only addressed to the imprisoned television viewers, but also to those parts of society that resist. Placing dilemmas and separating the tactics of struggle they seek its division and self-amputation. The fight against the state and the bosses is multiform, multidimensional and multilevelled, however the aim is one: the destruction of the rotten existent for individual and social liberation. In the frames of this struggle we choose not to leave any fighter alone. We stand in solidarity to those that have clearly chosen what side they are on. That of resistance, revolutionary conscience, rage.

Thus, we as well, the dawn of 21-1-11 chose to deliver to flames 2 security vehicles for money transfers of Brinks company by sending our own flaming signal. The target was far from accidental since the security companies come to cover the gap left by the governmental dogs of the "safety" forces. They have been assigned to guard many public buildings and services as well as the transport of the wealth, ensuring the smooth flow of money. They protect the bosses and their properties, those that they defend with so much passion. It's the very companies that the "democratic" regimes in Europe and America have assigned to manufacture and operate private prisons and the creation of private armies.

"And the door of prison shakes behind you. You are now there, came out alive from your arrest, you are angry that you were not more careful, you worry if they arrest others, you try to understand what they know, if a lawyer is advised and of course careful to hide what you think. The gun, the counterfeit papers, your clothes, all their own, the light blue form of prison that they trowed in your face and the shoes are very big for you-to make fun of you or because they actually believe that "terrorists" are huge-your face has changed. You look around you and observe carefully the vital area of your next years"

(Klaus Viehmann)

When a comrade is captured, war, reflective attacks, attack to the capitalist society. When a comrade dies, war, revenge, they will pay with any way, everybody must be in position to understand the cost of the death. For every comrade that is prosecuted by the state, war, solidarity to the political choices that led him to this condition, raising of the revolutionary action and continuation of the revolutionary/anarchic fight. The intensity of the revolutionary war has now reached a very high and unprecedented level. The arrests of comrades succeed one more arrests, the revolutionary forces standing up toward the enemy. The last months, after the international call of Conspiracy of Cells of Fire for action in regard to the court of her members, anarchists, revolutionaries and other defendants it began a barrage of international revolutionary-aggressive actions in solidarity in the light of an International Revolutionary Front. The internationalization of the resistance is a constant challenge for us and we consider it essential for the reinforcement of the revolutionary war. Based on this concept we have burned a company of production of military material that collaborated with the Chilean government to express our solidarity and as one more effort to contribute to this international direction..

Now that in a first phase the bet of globalization for the court of a revolutionary organization should have been gained we must place in the field of the revolutionary dialectic the prospect of the overall internationalization of the Revolutionary Action not only for courts or political circumstances. Let's organize our forces and attack the states in a global level. The effort of setting up a global anarchist revolutionary force is now an actual fact. The exchange of experiences, criticism, the calls, greetings, the analyzes of policy considerations with rebels comrades from all over the world is now a possibility that we must not waste.

The conscience, the consequence, the constitution, the individuality are the most important weapons that each anarchist who have self-respect and aims at the destruction of the state and the capitalistic society should permanently evolve. As anarchists we must know that our revolutionary choices do not retreat in front of imprisonment or even our death. All these are situations that we must have in mind and constantly thinking them so that we do not stay speechless in a bad situation. We believe that in the war that is conducted in many levels we can not and we must not try to win only in the military field. That is to say that our fight is mainly political. Therefore in case of an imprisonment we believe that we must not hide anything from our political opinion and ideas. That is why we consider an unrespectable attitude as a political defeat.

Additionally, as a matter of fact if you do not support totally your political ideas and actions in order to reduce your punishment you automatically reduce the choices and the tension of your fight from inside the walls. "Certainly there are plots and cases that criminalize relationships between individuals, but that is not to say that our role as rebels is to focus there and propose nothing. Rebels are not lawyers in order to restrict their beliefs in legal arbitrariness by cops and judges. Then, that is their role " G. Tsakalos In relation to this issue it is very important to assess the consequence of words and actions of prisoners of war. An assessment that is proved into practice through revolutionary solidarity. We also stand next to our comrades that are imprisoned in the jail of Aulona for the case of Nadir. Both of them have taken place of counter-attack behind the walls expressing their political beliefs, while they participate with the other Thessalonian comrades in the abstention of soupe in solidarity to the companions that are judged for Conspiracy of Cells of Fire. We want to declare that independent from the affair for which an anarchist-rebel is accused (e.g for an arson or for a riot or for armed struggle) his attitude inside the walls must not be determined by the means that he used and for which he was jailed but from his political perception and theory which is not shaped neither is influenced from legalistic mentality but also does not rate the means of the fight. And we are saying that because the comrades even if arrested for an "inferior" affair (legally and only) than others they signed with comrades who have more severe categories, while it could be possible for many to think that they should not say anything, because in any case they will be released soon (something that is also doubtful). "We do not ask for something small

. What we are looking for is the war itself and within it the hand that will catch our own, after a victory, but especially after a defeat which was never accompanied by retreat. The hand that will target without hesitation, whatever and whoever was targeting and our hand. Straight and between the eyes. Because the fight never finishes, but only explodes." On Thursday January 13 our comrades Dimitri Fessas, Babis Tsilianidis Dimitris Dimtsiadis and Sokrates Tzifkas are arrested by the counter-terrorism police who were fugitive from justice after the arrest of rebel John Skouloudis. The comrades were not apologized, saying that they are anarchistsrebels and they did not recognize the process. They did not even take lawyers proving their intolerance toward to the juridical system and his laws as well as in the "freedoms" that this provides(legal defense). For this affair was also arrested the anarchist Fee Mayer. We believe that the anarchists's public actions in relation to the case for the arrests of the four comrades from Thessaloniki is unacceptable. The fact that there were public calls for the "unfair" arrest of Fee Mayer, the criminalization of her friendly fellow-relations, the way that media handled her case and many other things more aimed at the disorientation of the affair. We believe that it is hypocritical when four comrades have not even their own lawyer and have said to the investigators that they do not apologize as they are anarchic rebels. It is proved once again that eventually the "innocent" deserve more "innocent ~ legalistic solidarity. Once again the solidarity takes the Christian form of sympathy. After the arrest of the anarchist and member of the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire Michalis Nikolopoulos we immediately decided as a minimum response some reflective hits. So, from Thursday to Saturday we had an incendiary barrage aimed to answer the minimum to the arrest of our comrade. Obviously we know that these actions were reflective and that compared with the hit of a capture is minimal so we promise more powerful hits.

We take responsibility for the arsons of:

- Mc Donald's in Athens
- Zografou town hall
- Kaisariani town hall

The attempted arson at Marks & Spenser stores and Fred Perry in a street full of stores at Kifissia.

Unfortunately for us, somebody alerted to the existence of three incendiary packages, and were disabled by the cops.

PS 1. We welcome all calls of rebel teams that call into action and we recall on a new round of ruthless warfare.

PS 2. Good strength and courage to comrades whose trial is conducted in Koridallos prison when they give their own fight against the judicial authorities. Hold on comrades, nothing is left unanswered.

PS 3. On Monday morning comrade Rami Syrianos arrested for an armed robbery and was detained. Good strength in your struggle comrade.

Responsibility claim for attack on Eurobank in Mitilini Island for Keratea

We live in a time of war. A time where the oppressed receive a full on attack from state and capital it is of imperative need to realize from which position we speak and which side we support with our word our and action. With this fact we can see a blurry vertical line that separates the two fighting camps and becomes clearer each time those below dispute the decisions of the dominance and receive their repressive violence, therefore also are revealed the cohesive bonds between those fighting against these decisions. We do not support with indiscrimination whoever fights. However, the violence of the state should be answered with violence. Each tenacious and uncompromising fight against the interests and the plans of the opportunists, and in favour of the freedom of people to determine their lives as they want, strengthens the social entropy and it does not cease to be on our side since we see this bisector line from the camp of the former.

Solidarity, whose significance is degenerated by the excessive use of the word from all sorts of populist demagogues, apart from being a component with which human societies were created and evolved, is also a very powerful weapon for the camp of the below in the social war. It becomes particularly dangerous for the enemy when it is expressed factually and its carrier seeks to transmit the corresponding political message to as many as possible wider layers of oppressed.

At 4.20 in the morning of 30/3 we attacked with hammers the subsidiary branch of Eurobank in our city as token of solidarity to the fighting residents of Keratea and in order to send a political message -proof of existence of people that think and are ready for action- on both camps. According to its bulletin, Eurobank possesses 40% share of the stocks of MESOGEOS A.E. which is the main constructor of HYTA in Keratea. The residents of the Lauriotiki region, who have been fighting for over 100 days and are receiving continuous barbarian attacks from the dogs of the bankers and contractors – yes, we mean the cops – resulting in the injury of citizens, destructions of their properties, a pregnant woman lost her child, have already begun a campaign of boycotting the particular bank. These things naturally are not heard neither are written in the guided governmental means of mass deceit. They are heard and written however in the independent means of information and at <http://antixyta.blogspot.com>.

The state has transported already much of its waste (3000) from the camp of the MAT (riotcops), to Keratea. Its time they take these and the rest, go and burn them in the courts, the police departments and Parliament. Keratea we are with you!

Claim of responsibility for the arson at A. Loverdos office by Revolutionary Liberation Action

We claim responsibility for the arson attack at the political office of Health Minister Andreas Loverdos.

This politician is one of the most prominent advocates of the attack that the ruling class has launched against all proletarians. In the past, when serving as Minister of Labour, he was responsible for imposing unbearable terms of exploitation on workers, by implementing the policies of the Memorandum and the Greek government.

Today, as Health Minister, he is promoting the complete privatisation of health services, being responsible for excluding thousands of people from basic medical care. This cynical authoritarian had the vulgarity to demand from those of the 300 immigrants recently in hunger strike who had to be hospitalised to pay 100,000 euros each, for medical expenses.

The antisocial policies he is imposing are part of the state and capital's broader planning, which forces large sectors of society to poverty and misery.

The confrontation with the state and capitalist dictatorship is a case of all the exploited and oppressed people. Our collective movement against the tyrants is the only possible prospect for subverting their plans. The dilemma we are faced with is to Struggle or Surrender. Struggle for liberation from the bonds of authority or surrender our lives to passivity, alienation and submission.

The symbolic attack against one of those in charge of the regime's aggression is part of the great struggles thousands of people and engaged in: the demonstrators participating in mass rallies, the people of Keratea in the roadblocks, the workers on strike. Our thought and actions are defined and enriched by the revolts of millions of outcasts around the world, such as the recent ones in north Africa. These thoughts and actions gain significance and perspective at the extent they are connected with the desires, the needs and the determination of our class. Any action is judged according to its target and its content, the words accompanying it. Its connection with the existent social resistance is what determines its effectiveness. Delirious, complacent declarations and elitist antisocial rhetorics have nothing to offer to the struggle for liberation. On the contrary, they separate the means from the end, thus degrading them.

The keynote for the full-scale assault of domination is violence, repression and social control: Anti-terrorist acts, police state, criminalisation of social resistance, slander of every struggle by the Media, and blunt frame-ups against people of the struggle are forming the conditions of a totalitarian regime, being built on the attempt to neutralise its political opponents. Fighting against this regime, we stand in solidarity with anarchist Aris Sirinidis who is facing fabricated charges and whose trial is taking place these days. In solidarity with anarchist Christos Politis who is imprisoned because of a ridiculous scenario made by the Antiterrorist

Department. In solidarity with imprisoned anarchists Sarandos Nikitopoulos, Vaggelis Stathopoulos, Christoforos Kortesis whose prosecution is based on the sole “evidence” of their personal and political relationships. In solidarity with militants Kostas Gournas, Pola Roupa, Nikos Maziotis who have taken the political responsibility for the participation in the “Revolutionary Struggle”. Let;s intensify with any means our efforts to form a social and class form against political and financial rulers; to form a collective vision of freedom.

Responsibility claim for the arson attack on Exarhia police station on May 14th

Maybe the most imperative moment to speak, is when an action of yours has the worst possible outcome. Therefore it would be unacceptable for us, to shut up or not speak the truth, concerning the incidents on May 14th on Kallidromiou street, Athens.

Comrades chose to carry out a targeted (politically and operationally) attack on the 5th Police Station in Exarhia. A moment of struggle and a small answer of ours to the savage attack on the demonstration on the 11th of May, the undisclosed cooperation of the Police with the Golden Dawn (neonazi group) in the recent racist pogroms. To all these versions of the attempted totalitarian dictatorship of capital and authority on our lives.

We put in our discussions, every possible effort so that the attack concerns only the obvious target: the police. We approached the Police station through the streets Trapezountiou and Mavromihali. We withdrew through H.Trikoupi and Methoni street. Presicely because we didnt want to involve the local Street Market. The only thing it provided, as an opportunity, to the people who openly resist in front of armed people, was the traffic jam it causes to the surrounding streets and the difficult approach of cops to the spot. In no way did we use the Street Market as a theatre of militant clashes.

We torched and destroyed three, personal cop motorbikes, on Mavromihali street without any people around getting injured. We placed and set fire to a bottle of petrol in the entry of the police station in order to simply stop their exit, without however throwing it inside, putting in this way people at risk. We torched all vehicles that were right outside the station (ofcourse no citizen can park there, for safety reasons). The same moment, a safeguarding group that was on H. Trikoupi street, located and attacked a motorbike with two plain-clothed cops on it. They stopped the motorbike and fought them away. The motorbike fell on H.Trikoupi, outside the limits of the market however very near to it. After that it was set on fire, mainly so there was no possibility of persecution from the cops that were fought off, who, incidentally were those who terrified invaded the market

The tragic error was that it was mistakenly considered that the fire of the motorbike on H. Trikoupi could not extend itself to the stalls on Kallidromiou street, a few metres further down. And indeed, this is how it would be if the uncommon event of the explosion of the motorbike tank did not happen. Nothing of the above revokes the RESPONSIBILITY (and the word responsibility here takes its genuine dimensions) and our sadness for the events.

In no case could it be, not even in the most remote corner of our brain, the indifference for the serious injury of a worker and the lighter injury of two others.

As political subjects we take in its entirety the responsibility of our action and its tragic consequences for the seriously injured worker, being foundationally and valuewise against any logic of adjacent losses.

From our heart we wish a full recovery to all three injured people and hope in their comprehension, for our motives but also our errors.

Responsibility claim for the attack on V.Papandreou and F.Petralia offices

There is money after all

For advisers of privatisations and “use” of public property (this is the name for selling out) there are millions of euros. For equipment, fuel, transport of all kinds of pig cops so that they can chase the internal enemy there is money.

For military equipment and participation in NATO, for “peaceful” forces in Afghanistan and wherever else, there are billions of euros. For wages of bishops and priests, for churches and flights to bring the “Holly Light” there is money. For crewing and equipment of inspectors-traitors in public transport and systems for electronic tickets there is money.

For subsidies of Football Clubs and... and... and... the list is long... there is money.

But for doctors, nurses, ambulances and hospital materials there is no money. Soon of course there will be no hospitals. They will have been sold out to insurance companies. For pensions, welfare and unemployment benefits there is not a dime. On Monday 18th of April 2011 at 22:20 we set fire to the political offices of Vaso Papandreou and Fani Petralia, which are on Academias street 28 in the centre of Athens, on the fifth floor and in the mezzanine respectively. Vaso Papandreou has been putting on for thirty years now the same boring theatrical representation titled “i criticise the government – i want a better application of the governmental plan – I resign, I do not resign”. So, of course she never takes a ministry in order to have easier access to the payoffs. Leave it lady. This time maybe it was petrol and gas cannisters but the time of the guillotine is also coming.

As for the fossil with the name Fani Palli Petralia the message is clear: Maybe now some are not so much involved in things but as long as they have contributed even at the minimum in the maintenance of the existing system they are a permanent and constant target of revolutionaries.

WE DO NOT FORGET – WE DO NOT FORGIVE

We end our solidarity to the dozens of revolutionaries that are hostages in the governmental dungeons Guerrilla signals to all that fight.

Responsibility claim for ATE bank in Votanikos -Arson in Ate Bank in Votanikos area, Athens (greece)

Arson in Ate Bank in Votanikos area, Athens 26/6

A home made incendiary mechanism with camping-gases was placed by unknown individuals just before 03:00am, on Sunday in the entrance of the 5storey building which also accomodates the subsidiary branch and offices of Ate Bank, on Spyros Patsis street, in Votanikos area.

From the explosion and the fire suffered serious damage the ATM, the interior of the building of the Bank and a parked motorcycle. On the spot were found two camping-gases that had exploded and a glass bottle.

“TO ASK FOR SOMETHING INTENSELY, IS LIKE BEGGING”

Undeniably in a season of crisis, A phenomenon inherent WITH capitalism, we experience the collapsing of social promises,promises such as steady work, lavish lifestyle, etc., that every one was trained to want, and everyone settled acceptedin order to compromise. This compromise initially promoted the gigantization of capital, using as a vaulting bar the overconsumption, and means of materialisation the loans and cards. This model however, as every other capitalistic model, failed. Thus came the time of crisis! This failure, beginning in the USA with the case of “toxic loans”, that led to the collapse of Lehman Brothers, pointing out the danger and prompting the state-capitalistic mechanisms to fortify themselves in order to protect heir existence.

A state that is founded being already in debt and continues as such through all its history, counting only the last 60 years (1940-2000) of its monetary indipendence, four depreciations and a bankruptcy,it is sure that it would be influenced by the world economic crisis.

With the integration of Greece in the EU and the Euro (for the achievement of which improprieties we will not analyze), was facilitated the further borrowing of the country, with experimental terms (see. CBS), loans which now the state is called to payoff,that in its turn puts on its subjects, increased and with limited possibilities of negotiation (memorandum – medium-term).

It is obvious even to the most ignorant that the control of the state has passed into the hands of the banks and their shareholders, a fact that although now has become obvious, actually is unbreakably connected with the birth of these mechanisms.

However “the king is now naked”, and the only thing left from now on to covers him is the total of mechanisms which with the participation of the previously mentioned settled one has managed to build... With the increase of policing that has been presented by the media as a popular demand, is justified the creation, maintainance and multiplication of cops and repressive units.

At the same time the juridical gang and its methods offers its “valuable” services. We don’t forget the recent incidents with the juridical coup d’etat that “justice” wants to pass through on the backs of the 3 comrades who are persecuted for participation in the Revolutionary Struggle, with the attempt to re-imprison them, neither with the attempt to internationalize the repression with the call of comrades G.Nikolopoulos and Ch.Tsakalos, members of the R.O. Conspiracy Cells of Fire, to present themselves in the office of the interrogator in Bologna Italy for the case with the letter bombs.

Down your limbs from our comrades!

Recognizing our enemies and choosing to attack them in the now, we attacked on 26-11

the Ate Bank of Sp.Patsis street in Votanikos.

Responsibility claim for the arson of the car of the mayor of Papagou, Athens

Beginning, concerning the events of the 28th and 29th of June we consider that we should place certain questions. We do not go into logic of fake dilemmas that the state places, such as the voting or not of the medium-term memorandum. In any case, democracy sooner or later shows its dominating face in the real war that was not called now, not even recently. We walk next to the individuals or the groups that the realized in the specific time situation and acted more aggressive than usual. However, stagnation and repetition lead to a monotony, while the frequency and the progress of the aggressive practice contributes to the cause of even more serious wounds to the enemy. Finally, to those who are limited to giving the finger, we say simply that our time is important.

In the direction of progress we placed the bet of personal threat. We know and prove that our opponent is not a vague concept on the fire-proof, but has a material substance, street and number, name and financial evidence evidence. Thus we paid a “visit” to the car of the mayor of Papagou area. In the early hours of Monday 4/7, we approached the target and we placed on the tyre of the vehicle a simple incendiary device, consisting of 1,5lt of petrol and candles of a suitable size, in order to ensure the required time for our escape from the area, the choice of which was by no means accidental. It is a police-security-army-horny-occupied area and, for this reason it is especially pleasant to see the personal vehicle the local ruler burning. The same, of course, goes for every mayor, of every area.

And now, to these mentioned above, a personal reference. Mr V.Xidi, today its your car, tomorrow its your house, the day after tomorrow its you. As long as some choose to govern, some will choose to exterminate them. As long as there is a rulling class, there will be Revolutionaries. Fortify yourselves as much as you want! We vow as long as we live you will not sleep in peace again.

"From Africa to Latin America and from Asia to Europe and North America the hearths of resistance not only do not extinguish but continuously re-ignite. Whether this concerns movements and collective formations or more smaller in numbers, more individual courses of disputing the existing" G.Dimitrakis

We live in a time where everything is liquidized. If the previous years what they could offer us was the consumerist debilitation and social evolution, henceforth the only promise is that of a slow death. In the time where the economic crisis becomes more and more deep, more social parts radicalise and stand against the existing. The fight with all means against state and bosses has intensified. From the struggle of Keratea and Lefkimmi, the hunger strike of the 300 immigrants workers, the movement of "I don't pay", the wild strike clashes in the centres of the metropolises, the sabotage to governmental and capitalistic targets, from arsons to the blowing up of entire structures of the regime by revolu-

The state in its turn upgrades its arsenal legally as well as materially and technically having as a main target the extermination of the "internal enemy". Because the appearance of water canons and the continuous military exercises to repress demonstrations couldn't impose order without new terror-laws, without new "guillotines" to hang over the heads of the most militant part. The upgrade of demeaning via the media, does not function simply as a spreader of false news. It depoliticizes and presents as simple criminals political subjects, anarchists, revolutionaries and fighters. The cracking down of an internal enemy is of great importance precisely because it is the "dangerous" social-radical part, it is the part that is conscience of itself and fights modern totalitarianism. It's the regulator of balance, the pledge for the existence and the continuity of capitalism itself. Here the antiterrorist force –the "pride" of the Greek Police- takes control... It creates profiles and it channels them via the press, it raises the secrecy of telephone discussions fights modern totalitarianism. It's the regulator of balance, the pledge for the existence and the continuity of capitalism itself. Here the antiterrorist force –the "pride" of the Greek Police- takes control... It creates profiles and it channels them via the press, it raises the secrecy of telephone discussions and transforms friendly relations into "terrorist organizations". It goes onto the manufacturing of these, as in the case of Ch.Politis. Precisely because there are no margins. The system is ill and the political opponents must be exterminated, and this it makes very clear.

If henceforth for us there is a bet, this is the continuity of the struggle. And a part of this is our solidarity to the imprisoned fighters and political prisoners. If the choice of sabotage of structures of sovereignty is a ruptured and aggressive moment of the social-class war, solidarity is that qualitative relation that links the disparate parts that contribute to destabilisation itself, to the parts that -consciously or not- move against or many times aggressively to the capitalistic structure.

Conspiracy of Cells of Fire claim responsibility for arson of 12 telecommunications vehicles

"How does the light begin from a star and pours into black eternity and walks immortal? The star dies, but its light never does, such is the cry for freedom."
(N. Kazantzakis)

Now, now that the ground is fertile for the fruit of havoc to flourish. The intensification of revolutionary violence against the autocrat of our lives should be the first priority in the plans of the revolutionary forces. Its in our hands to attempt to take over the present conditions and waterproof the airtight valves which combined with laziness, the fear of repression and the arbitrary aphorism of violence repeats inactivity sinking in a swamp of mean interests. With as a spearhead revolutionary conscience, continuous war for the construction of our autonomous existential-value code and the destruction of sovereign social relations and the authority that invades every aspect of our everyday life.

The debt of the anarchist/revolutionary movement is enormous in the current condition since more and more people radicalize towards both ends. The anarchist/revolutionary movement should not in any case be limited to being socially agreeable and acceptable from all since it is now obvious that it will be met with indifference and resignation. The danger of this failure lies in the pollution of the movement from the parasite of inactivity which will also impoverish the movement in all its expressions.

We could say therefore that we are surrounded by invisible enemies but also possible comrades. The continuous development of the multiform revolutionary action should become the tool that will make the masks drop. When we are positioned behind the dividing lines there will be no more excuses, the ignition of social polarization as a fundamental objective inside the revolutionary strategies is necessary.

Let it be placed therefore as an objective the radicalization of the anarchist/revolutionary movement towards the strategy of urban guerrilla. An anarchist should be organized and act away from the eyes and ears of cops in the clear darkness of conspiracy. In order to clarify that this prompt is not out of arbitrariness and fetishism but taking into consideration the promotion of multiform revolutionary action and the strategies of struggle.

As fans therefore of the multiform revolutionary action we consider the field of the street and more specifically that of demonstrations a field on which we can work, evolve and spread our perception. Demonstrations initially constitute points of counter-information, distributions of texts, flyers, spraypainting of slogans and stencils, interrupt the orderly operation of the city and propagate the messages of war. At the same time demonstrations function as a field of spreading revolutionary violence.

A violence that in first degree at least does not clash militarily with the mechanisms of repression neither transports the conflict to the utopian sphere of the “final battle”. The violence that is applied with stones and molotov from the minorities that factually dispute the authority create the experience of conflict in a new world, an experience which under conditions can be transubstantiated afterwards into revolutionary conscience. The violence that is practiced aims at becoming adopted by as many people as possible. Far from fetishisms such as ‘whoever smashes stuff is one of us’, the experience of conflict in the street as a first stage of awareness of the participant is important. Reversing the cliché ‘demonstrations are for the cops to win’ we believe that in the demonstrations what wins is the experience and vagabondage.

We stress therefore that we will not attack somewhere and sometimes when the skies rain conscience and the world floods of revolution. We will choose action now and we will force it to a continuous aggressive and simultaneously evolutionary move in time. We prefer a possible abomination of society from becoming a piece of the misery and postponement. As revolutionaries we owe via the step that is offered by well aimed revolutionary action to spread our revolutionary conscience and the practices that “accompany” it, to all those who have their eyes and ears open in order for them to see and hear, far from material epicurisms, psychological dead ends, tv-narcosis and submission.

Agreeing with the proposal of the Conspiracy Cells of Fire of the 1st period we decided to factually promote and support its continuation. More dangerous, unpredictable and chaotic than ever. Guerrilla methodologies, infrastructures and battle tactics are already in the “laboratory” of revolutionary development.

And now a clear personal message to the bastards that are on the list of the “immediately interested”: You will not get rid of the Conspiracy this easy you motherfuckers, not today, and not as long as there are decisive revolutionaries ready to crush your bones.

With great joy we greet the network of soldiers from the Revolutionary Groups for the Spreading of Terror who decided to include their precious services in the organization with the vandalism of a bank and the arson of municipal-cop cars and the mayors car. We respond warmly and we reply, lets go again this time STRONGER.

The 2nd generation of the Conspiracy is here and we are present. Napoleon said that the worse thing that a nation can suffer is the transformation of its land into a theatre of war. Precisely this raging civil revolutionary war in the interior of the country is what we must intensify to the limits. Intensification with every one of our weapons and not with prayers, we face the enemy. From the stone to the pistol and from posters to the expropriations of food from the shelves of supermarkets. The machine of extermination of political opponents of the state is in full force. We should do whatever we can in order to become the sand in its cogwheels. We should be a permanent cost to the captivities of revolutionaries with continuous strikes on social peace and the public life of the country.

Every day that passes, contradictions collide, combine, mature, speak. Our desires for a life that will chase everything free against the ugliness of dominating relations that underestimate everyone of our creative aspects, against materialistic lust, a result of the feigned consuming dreams that are projected by the “advertisers” of capitalism but also the need of the morbid majority to gag its sentimental voids.

Negativism is drowned in the passivity of the universe, it looks for ways out, expressions, aims to bloom, get educated, attack. Its composition-collectivization in the fragmentary events reactions of the total of its life gives strength, free moments, self-realization but does not suffice. These representatio

defused
before you even begin to express yourself.
They finish
before you
even begin to live them.

Popular moodswing, without making any particular deepening in the feelings that are being born by its long-lasting oppression, gives its position of partially factual, spasmodic “indignation” to the sun of the beaches. Revolutionary prospect requires continuity, duration and the logics of postponement for the “next season” do not concern our case.

Faithful therefore to the revolutionary “call outs” but also to ourselves, we do the obvious: the continuation of revolutionary war. We take therefore the responsibility for the arson of 12 vehicles of O.T.E. (greek telecommunications organization) that were in the outdoor parking lot in Maroussi on the cross of Hatziantoniou and Dionyssis street.

When the night calls us paint thrown on banks in Vironas area, tuesday 18/10 Athens

Banks always consisted a part of the aggressive targeting of the oppressed, a way of factual dispute of the power of capital in our lives. And this because the banking organisms comprise the pylon of the capitalistic structure, contributing the most to the intensification of oppression and exploitation of our lives on behalf of the above. More specifically in the season of medium-term, memorandums, social decadence, the -reminding the the junta years of repression, the greek robbing colossus confirm even more their role and the characterizations loan sharks, robbers, pimps and blackmailers that have been attributed to them occasionally. With the repossessions of homes of those who cannot payoff their loans, with the obligatory increases of interest-rates, with their blackmailing terms of lending, with the auctions of households. The intensification of the already blackmailing terms of the market does not come from the sky neither does it cause a surprise. It constitutes an integral part of the capitalistic reformation with sole objective the redistribution of wealth to the domestic and foreign bosses, making the life of the below even more unbearable. And therefore in the brink of a general 48hour strike we chose to attack the subsidiary companies of domestic loan sharks giving a simple and comprehensible answer to their autocrats of our lives.

On tuesday 18/10 the dawns the subsidiary companies of Eurobank, Agrotiki bank, Proton bank, the Postal Savings bank and Millennium bank on Kolokotroni street in the neighborhood of Vironas received an pictorial intervention by dozens of colours on their fronts, their signs and their ATMs.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAIM FOR ARSON ATTACK ON BANK IN THESSALONIKI

In the frame of the polymorphic solidarity actions being carried out for every imprisoned fighter, we consider the guerilla arsons necessary, just as we consider necessary every counter-information action. From leaflets and texts of solidarity, occupations-interventions, protests and gatherings outside of prisons, up to night time arsons-sabotage, each one with the way of action they have chosen shows the mechanisms of the state that no imprisoned fighter will be left alone.

This is why we chose to attack with an incendiary device consisting of 4 gas cannisters at the National bank at the corner of Venizelou street and Amorgou street (Triandria neighbourhood) at 3.27am of the 4th of December, wanting to give strength to anarchist comrade Rami Syrianos, who is tried on Monday 5th December for expropriation of money from a state auction company, an act which he proudly defends and has taken full responsibility for. ## Responsibility claim for the burned 3 vans of the Greek telecommunications organization (OTE) -Athens

"A life deeply conscious that will give the opportunity to those who experience it, to learn again, to communicate, to fight, to organize, to live and also with those who they 'dig' to share their common aims, their common experiences, their common hates."

(From the pamphlet Handbook of Reintroduction)

We live in a grey urban landscape, which drowns us daily. Its configuration as a "product" of the mechanisms of the state subjugates the people and initiates them into a fucking routine.

The spaces of work, "amusement", education and entertainment constitute a "step" for authority itself so that it evolves as many human zombies as possible. Our needs were enclaved on shelves of temples of consumption, our feelings were locked into whorehouses, fear conquered the people prompting them to subjugation. We decided to go against the unity that is observed widely in our days in the majority of the social portion, and we denied the artificial needs and the roles of dominator and dominated which sovereignty is trying to impose. Our aim is the establishment of a radical-revolutionary movement with multiform action, far from fetishisms. We thus place for ourselves and for our co-fighters the bet of permanent search and development, so much on a personal level as well as on a collective level.

In the early hours of Sunday 8/1/12, we completely burned 3 vans of the Hellenic Telecommunications Organization on the cross of Mikra Asia and Sinopsis street in Goudi. Our attack was a minimal token of solidarity to the 4 comrades from Thessaloniki (Tsilianidis, Skouloudis, Tzifkas, Dimtsiadis) for their fighting and proud attitude inside and outside the walls. We know that even the least aggressive movement from the big prison gives courage and warms the hearts of our comrades.

Responsibility claim for the arsons of the Tax Offices of Pagrati and Glifada.- Athens

"And I ask the economists, the politicians, the moralisers: did they ever calculate the number of people who obligatorily are convicted to decadence, to unequal work, to shabbiness, to corrupted ignorance, to unbeatable infelicity, to absolute destitution in order to produce a rich person?"

Almeida Garrett

We take responsibility for the arsons, in the early hours of Saturday 26/11 and Tuesday 29/11, in the:

- Tax offices of Pagrati, on Damareos street
- Tax offices of Glifada, on Gounari street

We placed the incendiary mechanisms on the inside of the buildings aiming at as much material damage as possible.

The global economic-political system transforms testing its totalitarian possibilities. We are living the end of the "social state" with the passing into an even more vicious capitalism without limits and rules. The generalized systemic crisis is not an accidental incident, but a situation of capitalism itself. The procedure with which the capital was invested all the previous years, with the so-called money products (bonds, CDS e.t.c) was proven precarious. This fact was unavoidable, since lending creates money, which does not correspond to a rise of the economic base, that is to say, the production of the proportional product, to which the money would correspond. Thus, the managers of large capitals are in the unfavourable position to have tied up a large part of their wealth not in material goods, but in a promise of money. By trying to secure their wealth, they blackmail and extract the dominating rights in public and state fortune, coming to the point of attacking also the private fortunes of the citizens.

In the Greece of 2011 the repeatedly memorandums and the lending conventions consist the official grave stone of whatever social and work conquests, the abolition of every meaning and pretext of the "welfare state". Thus comes the end of the feigned prosperity and "frantic development" of the dogma of modernization of the '90s and the beginning of the '00s.

The fiestas of uplifting the "national ideal" of the Olympics and the vision of the "powerful Greece" give way to the fear of proletarianization, with capitalism, under the weight of its dead-ends, taking away the crumbs it gave out. With the mechanisms of guidance, as always, in full function. The relaxation in the stadiums and the consumption of cheap (or expensive...) lifestyle. With the reduction of self-interest to a social goods, with the customer relations and the give-and-taking with the political authority, was conserved the invention of a fabricated thriving middle class. An apathetic identical social formation where the biggest piece of it did not see or did not want to see the evident. That the informal 'Omerta' with the system, which exploits it, steps on borrowed and hollow foundations. The previous years, going through the streets of the city you noticed a society, which in its majority watched self-consciously its bloodsucking compared to the cannibalism imposed on it. Henceforth the cuts on wages and pensions, the added taxes, will form a more and more asphyxiating daily life for everyone. The instinct of self-preservation is activated and a social angry outburst is now in evolving, creating thin balances between the fatalistic moaning and the factual expression of disobedience. The passing of the systemic crisis over our backs puts every person in front of the responsibilities of their own dignity. The course is definitely not predestined. The shady cloud of dispute hovers above the political system.

The regime of urban democracy seeing the contract of social peace and subjugation slowly and steadily getting wrinkled, resorts to the pre-decided choice of a government of cooperation and complicity. Hoping it will function as a de-pressure valve, for the achievement of a inter-class consent through cries for national coil and multiple black-mails. A right to the pie of authority is for all traditional parliamentary political forces who are willing to completely harmonize with the orders of the global economic elite. The coup d' etat model of the technocratic governing signals the "end of history", with the pushing aside of ideologies, putting under its umbrella fake social-democrats up to the fascists of LAOS (populist orthodox formation). In reality its aim is now clear and without pretexts rising of the capital to a legislative co-

The united interests of the urban class and their expressers go through the economic junta of the omnipotence of the banks, the squeezing of individual production possibility, the economic annihilation of the non-privileged, the reduction of freedoms and the legal and military armouring of the frame of oppression. The dignity of existence is expressed with violent rupture, resistance in the working places, the barricades of the strikes, from the not discounted refusal of the existing way of things and the stomping of ruling ethics.

Revolutionary violence is the chariot of social liberation and revolutionary conscience the fuel which will move it. The crisis is for the system an "opportunity for reformation" or otherwise a bullet, that aims at its forehead as long as a capable collective subject is found to pull the trigger. The objective conditions of today immediately put the matter of the search and acceleration of the means for the uprooting of authoritarian-exploitative relations, aiming at the construction of relations of solidarity-equality of tomorrow, the emersion of an un-mediated anti-capitalist front from the bottom which will cross over to the multiform attack. It is imperative henceforth, that we set up horizontal structures and procedures, which will accompany the practices that promote the revolution. The moment the state mechanisms will come to impose the antisocial measures of their local and international bosses, they fall onto the bulwark of solidarity of the oppressed. With the populist assemblies, wild strikes, the antifascist struggle, the night-time raids, sabotages, armed struggle, a rad ical front is composed which aims at the destruction of modern totalitarianism which is imposed on our lives.

The only solution for the passing into a society of equality where there will be no exploitation of human by humans is the SOCIAL REVOLUTION.

We dedicate our attacks to the anarchist comrades P.Roupa, N.Maziotis, K.Gournas who have taken the political responsibility for the R.O. Revolutionary Struggle and to the anarchist comrades S.Nikitopoulos, Ch.Kortesis, V.Stathopoulos, K.Katsenos as well as M.Beraha who are tried for the same case.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAIM FOR THE BEATING OF AN MP OF PASOK, 12/12/11

On the night of November 23rd we tracked down the MP of PASOK S. Kouvelis boarding a luxurious Lexus, probably his car.

Without a second thought we decided to attack him.

We punched him and robbed him, as is done from the side of politicians. In his bag which we confiscated, were: a laptop, documents of PASOK, expensive pens, credit cards with a total of 90.000 euro in them (!!!) and his MP identification card.

As well, we were amazed by the fact that his bag was full of condoms, what did that dirty old man want with them???

Thessaloniki: Responsibility claim for arson attack against ATEbank, in solidarity with CCF members Gerasimos Tsakalos and Panagiotis Argirou

We more or less know the facts. On Monday, September 12th, comrades Gerasimos Tsakalos and Panagiotis Argirou after having been transferred to Koridallos prisons for a formal council were transferred back to Domokos prisons. Both refused to undergo the humiliation of inner-body search, and were violently attacked there by humanguards with torturer Kliaris as leader.

Statists use any of their available mechanisms to exterminate people who have struggled with dignity, and continue to struggle dignified behind prison walls; people who were, are and will always be REVOLUTIONARIES.

The instigators and perpetrators of this attack should know that the comrades are undismayed, and that these actions will only make matters worse for them. The hostilities continue.

Thus, on September 19th, we attacked Agrotiki bank in Papafi Street in the district of Toumpa with an incendiary device which consisted of four litres of flammable mixture and three camping-gas cannisters, so as to express our solidarity with the two comrades but also as a minimum response to those who are always ready to attack anyone who struggles.

Strength to the members of the R.O. CCF Gerasimos Tsakalos and Panagiotis Argirou, and all political prisoners

GUERRILLA FORMATION LAMBROS FOUNDAS - ATHENS

The king is naked....behind the institutions, the laws, the uniforms, the condemnatory decisions, behind the policies and the symbols of the regime faces are hidden. Faces with names, addresses and roles that in the stratification of power each one of whom has a share and the weight of their position and choices.

Our position and choices have been clear for a while now. We declared, moreover, that we would come to your homes. Thus, in the early morning of Saturday 15/1 we visited Kalliopi Spanou in the complex of apartments where she lives in Halandri on Zaimi Street 38 and as a token of "appreciation" to her, we left an incendiary device made from 5 litres of petrol and 3 gas cannisters. We decided to place the device in the courtyard and not near a door or window in order to avoid injuring another tenant or even your own daughter. As for your "honourable" husband and his role we will talk about that in the future.

We see the concealment of this attack as part of the efforts of the enemy to strengthen the climate of safety and control. Kalliopi Spanou is the successor of Giorgos Kaminis in the position of citizens' advocate. This appointed and "independent" authority has as its mission the minimization of friction between the regime and society, and is nothing more than the oil in the cogwheels of the government machinery.

All well respected "ladies" and "gentlemen" should know that at the moment you build careers as miserable pillars and employees, the political court marshals are set up, our comrades are tortured, they are persecuted, imprisoned, friendly relations are criminalized and the seal of the antiterrorist provisions falls upon every part that resists and acts.

Know, also, that your overloaded social position will not be forgotten let alone forgiven... you will be accountable you scum and because in the days to come the helicopters cannot fit you all, the best thing you can do in order to save your dignity even at the last moment is to perform hara-kiri in Syntagma square [main square in athens, right in front of parliament]. We draw the dividing lines. We fight, we do not recede, receding means quitting. We speak we do not keep quiet, silence is compliance. We do not flinch, we transfer fear to the camp of the enemy and light the fuse of revenge.

Shame to the spectators, the submissive, to those that bow their head and turn the other cheek. We accept responsibility for our actions, we all know what's going on and no one is unfortunate, the history of each one of us is written and cannot be unwritten.

At this point we want to stress that the criticism between revolutionaries and the people that fight should be evolutionary and promote the struggle itself, otherwise it ends up being merely comments of a kind that conceal bickering and inaction.

We dedicate our attack to the jailed members of the R.O. Conspiracy of Cells of Fire H.Hajimihelakis, P.Argirou that are on trial as of Monday 17/1 in the political court martial of koridallou prisons, as well as P.Masouras, K.Karakatsani, G.Karagiannidis, A.Mitrousias, who deny the charges and are on trial for the same case.

We greet the call to a militant expedition of solidarity of the Warriors of Revolutionary Conscience.

Solidarity for us is the struggle itself.

responsibility claim for the incendiary package send to the minister of justice in greece 2/2/11

I do not feel loss for my arrest...
I do not feel loss for the clandestinity ...
I do not feel loss that I am imprisoned...
I do not feel loss for the Struggle that we conduct...

(Michalis Nikolopoulos member of the prisoned cell of C.C.F)

The real defeat in a war is not captivity in the hands of the enemy, but capitulation, loss of conscience, surrender, penitence, statements of loyalty. Because that is where the game of power is played, in the moral decline and depreciation of its dissident opponents. It wants to force rebels to bend, to kneel, to conciliate to make clear that "every struggle is lost, all resistance is useless". However the only lost fight is the one that never began. Its commands are clear. "You must not think, you must not resist, you must not fight". And where its rhetoric does not work, either with the illusion of consuming frenzy, or with the threat of the violence of truncheons, guns and tear gas, there are the judicial "clergies" and correctional establishments ready "to accommodate" the most undisciplined for an indefinite time. They also want to send this message "we decide and we give the orders" inside the special political martial court that is judging the case of the revolutionary organization Conspiracy of Cells of Fire.

There is no need for somebody to be an anti-authoritarian in order to see the overt fascism that prevails in the special court of Koridalos prison. The refusal to install microphones for the recording of the trial and the fact that the cops hold all the identities of the people who want to express their solidarity and stand next to the defendants are the "virtues" of the admirable world of democracy. Those that with their predatory appetites have "mortgaged" the life of an entire population, now speak about the "unsustainable cost of recording the trial" while simultaneously they are restoring in modern history the publication of new testimonial beliefs, by keeping the identities of the people that want to attend the trial, obviously in order to use them in no "innocent" way, but for the input of the Police and the Counter-terrorist department. We will be brief.

The comrades of the cell of the imprisoned members of C.C.F and the dignified rebels P. Masouras and G. Karagianidis have highlighted the political and repressive policies of this trial a thousand times better than us.

The essential wager that is being played at this moment on the part of the anarchists, revolutionaries, those in solidarity and undisciplined is to not allow power to make one more step towards strengthening its coup d'etat. The cell of the imprisoned members of C.C.F and the dignified comrades placed a limit of life and dignity. The cell of the imprisoned members of C.C.F and the dignified comrades placed a limit of life and dignity by beginning a HUNGER STRIKE on 3-2-2011. "This struggle is given, not for a precarious victory in this court, but in order for it to be imposed as an non-negotiable term in all the political trials that will follow, the possibility of the unhindered attendance by all the people who want to express their solidarity. A fight that comes to a peak with the start of the hunger strike"(Gerasimos Tsakalos- Michalis Nikolopoulos - members of the cell of prisoned members of C.C.F) The cell of the imprisoned members of C.C.F and the dignified comrades placed a limit of life and dignity by beginning a HUNGER STRIKE on 3-2-2011. "This struggle is given, not for a precarious victory in this court, but in order for it to be imposed as an non-negotiable term in all the political trials that will follow, the possibility of the unhindered attendance by all the people who want to express their solidarity. A fight that comes to a peak with the start of the hunger strike"(Gerasimos Tsakalos- Michalis Nikolopoulos - members of the cell of prisoned members of C.C.F) The comrades turned the court of power into a victory not only for the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire but also for the wider revolutionary front. Everything that happened and everything that will happen constitutes the new legacy of courts and prosecutions that the system is preparing for its political opponents. Comrades...! in this court is being conducted one of the most important battles that goes far beyond the action and history of a revolutionary organization. The state "tests" the resistance and tolerance of the radical-subversive area.

Certain coincidences, such as the facility with which the police and the public prosecutors fill the TV screens and the front pages of the newspapers with photographs of suspects, where it is proved afterwards that these persons, such as the anarchist Fee Meyer or K.S. that was arrested as a suspect for a robbery in Thessaloniki and turn out to have no relation with these "charges" against them, are not accidental. (We add that for that particular robbery the anarchist Rami Surianos was arrested and for sure if he is innocent he deserves our solidarity, if guilty he deserve it a thousand times more). The new fashion of arrests of persons that are accused for unknown-anonymous terrorist groups, such as the case of the 6 and the arrest of the 4 comrades in Thessaloniki, is also not accidental. This witticism of the unknown-anonymous terrorist tgroup, as anyone can understand, is an "elastic argument" that stretches and opens depending on the appetites and interests of power and the law enforcement authorities in order to justify the huge increase in future charges (special provisions of terrorism law).

It was heard from the public prosecutor that in the case of F. Meyer "it is not reasonable to possess texts written by suspects for terrorism". That is to say the possession of texts that are already published, that contain thoughts, concerns, proposals, regardless whether somebody agrees or not, is considered a punishable offence. Thus perhaps the season of the thought police is not far away. We must not forget that what gets used by the eye, gets used by the brain as well. Anyone can remember the reactions that existed to the first special court years ago for the R.O. 17November, and compare them with the present trial. Now the fact that special courts exist seems to be normal and only a few react (a fact that honours them).

Here exactly we must pass to the counter-attack. Exactly here we must stop getting used to retreating. Exactly here we must stop fearing the ghost of repression. The repression exists because action exists. Qualitative, quantitative and unrepentant action. The imprisoned members of C.C.F. and the dignified comrades sparked something off. Our brothers from Thessaloniki of the case of the 4 together with G. Skoyloudis as well as Stelios and Panos Anastasiadis (the NADIR case) turned their solidarity into action by participating in the abstention from taking prison food. Here we want to add that the 4 comrades D. Dimtsiadis, D. Fessas, M. Tsilianidis, S. Tzifkas gave "lessons" in revolutionary dignity, disdaining and offending the judiciaries with their proud attitude as they did not give one word, refusing to recognize the process. We remind them that they are always in our thoughts and that the dangerous journey of revolution has not finished...

Now it is our time. We, "the free", all of us, anarchists and revolutionaries that say that we refuse this world, that we are fighting for freedom, that we are demolishing their false god that is money because ours is the human being, will we leave our comrades alone? Will we tolerate the fascist delirium of this worthless president (of the court) and her collaborators that pronounce "death" sentences for the comrades that go on hunger strike? There is no need for anyone to answer to himself with emotion. There is no space for emotion, or for humanitarian sympathies. It is a matter of a clear conscience. If the values and the moral code of persons that still believe in anarchy and her beauty, allows them to delay their attack and make up excuses, they should stay away from the affair We will not wait for them neither will history .... Now or never there is a need for our most decisive step. We say again that here is being played a total wager from the side of power. The development and the way in which the court of C.C.F turns out will be the guide for the trials to come. What remains unanswered will be considered a defeat. Their wager is in our hand, to make it our opportunity. Because times can be hard, our brothers can risk their lives with the hunger strike, many comrades can be imprisoned in the cells of democracy, however it is always one more chance for attack, for the destruction of this system. Of course, the need for strategy is now more clear than never before. Lightning never travels in straight repetitive lines. It bursts out suddenly. Even a phenomenal "silence", is not a retreat, but the silence before the thunder...

As a minimal expression of solidarity to the struggle of the imprisoned members of Conspiracy of Cells of Fire and the dignified comrades we sent an incendiary package to the minister of Justice X. Kastanidi who is responsible for the refusal of one of the two requirements of our comrades for the recording of the transcript of the trial. We will not answer his lies concerning the quantity of allegedly powerful explosives that he claimed for reasons of communication policy in order to present himself as victim. We will make do with repeating that the precautionary measures were the same as those of the previous 14 packets so that it is impossible for anyone uninvolved to be injured.

Moreover, we want to say a few things about the recent events in the Law faculty. This is the season of murderers. When the walls of a building have more value than 300 tortured souls, then it is sure that something is not going well. We have spoken about the contradictions of immigrants in a previous text, however when the majority of Greek society cares more about the windows and doors of a building, then do not search for criminals and murderers in the thieves and the desperate. Look around you, they speak the Greek language fluently and some go around in expensive cars wearing ties. Because you should know that when somebody is cruel in words, it rarely stops there ..

Finally we declare that from now the illegal sector of Conspiracy of Cells of Fire will also participate in the International Revolutionary Front - Informal Anarchist Federation. The explosive expression of solidarity at international level for the trial of C.C.F. and also the publications that put organizations such as the FLT-FLA (Mexico) and Praxedis G. Guerero in their texts, we consider that they initiate powerful bases for the opening of a revolutionary dialogue through action, but also proposals of co-ordination. We send therefore the most powerful revolutionary greeting to the comrades revolutionaries in all the world with the belief that our voices and action can meet and coordinate our total attack against power.

The sabotages in Turkey and the attacks of the informal cells of insurrection, the attacks in Chile, the letters with bullets in Madrid and Barcelona, the paint bombs on the Greek embassy in Austria, the arson of courts in Switzerland, the acts of solidarity in Poland, in Bristol, in London, but also in other places- heart of the capitalistic civilization (sources of counter - information culmine, viva la anarquia, act for freedom, 325, saf.a.espi.v e.t.c.) fill us with strength and courage in order to continue. And not only, but also in order to commit through our participation in the Informal Anarchist Federation - International Revolutionary Front that the quiet days are over for ever. At the same moment the internal enemy in Greece, is developing, becoming more effective and is organizing for its confrontation with the system. The attacks of the International Revolutionary Front - Deviant Behaviour for the spread of revolutionary terrorism, Informal Anarchist Federation - Cell of Aggressive Line, Informal Anarchist Federation - Cell of Revolutionary Solidarity, Warriors of Revolutionary Conscience, commando Lambros Fountas, revolutionary formations for the spread of chaos and other comrades, show that the prospect of international networking in the formation of the Informal Anarchist Federation and its values is effective here and now. Now every anarchist group can participate in this open platform of action and thought, contributing with its own way in its development and co-ordination. Also we send our warm solidarity to the anarchists Monica Caballero and Andrea Urzua Cid who are to be found in the women's prisons of Chile and to all the arrested for the bombs - case, to the anarchists Adrian Magdaleno and Braulio Arturo Duran (jailed in Mexico), to our brother Gabriel Pombo Da Silva in prison of Germany and to Billy, Costa, Silvia, M. Camenich (prisons of Switzerland).

Finally we embrace our own people, Michalis, Gerasimos, Panagiotis, Xaris, Takis, we grit our teeth and give them this promise and commitment:

As long as the sun rises from the east we will not stop fighting for your release even for a moment, to be all together again in the most beautiful plans that we left unfinished in order to fulfil the most wild and "mad" adventure of revolution. Our day will come...

We dedicate you these few words to you...

"Love danger. What hardre? That is what I want.

Which road will you take? The most rugged uphill.

Love responsibility

Do not look for friends, look for comrades.

Do not ask "will we win?"... "will we be defeated?"... just FIGHT..."

DIRECT ATTACK ON KAROLOS PAPOULIAS RESIDENCE IN DOWNTOWN ATHENS

Late on Saturday evening, February 4th, a group of hooded comrades carried out a direct action outside the house of the President of Greece, in Asklipiou Street, throwing sticks and stones on his residence. They were chased in Zoodochou Street, Exarchia, by motorcycle police units who fired flash-bang grenades. All comrades fled running.

On Saturday, February 4th, at 20.00 in the evening, 60 solidaritarians attacked the personal guard, the guard booth and official vehicles outside the residence of the president of democracy Karolos Papoulias. Papoulias' personal guard fled, and flyers were thrown at the spot in solidarity with the anarchists Stella Antoniou, Kostas Sakkas, Giorgos Karagiannidis and Alexandros Mitroussias.

The solidaritarians withdrew in coordinated pace from the place, which is located at short distance from the police headquarters. A few minutes later, a DELTA police motorcycle unit appeared, that used flash-bang grenades in an effort to reach the solidaritarians, but with no success.

Yesterday's action was held in solidarity with Stella Antoniou and the other comrades accused for the same case, as a first response to the denial of her application for release on bail.

These actions will continue until Stella Antoniou is released from prison.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAIM FOR ARSON ATTACKS ON CAR DEALERSHIPS AND THE MINISTRY OF CULTURE

Athens: Incendiary solidarity with Panagiotis ‘Takis’ Masouras, Konstantina ‘Nina’ Karakatsani, Stella Antoniou and Luciano Pitronello ‘Tortuga’

‘Beyond a certain point there is no return. This point has to be reached’
—Franz Kafka

The seemingly invisible

We are going through a period of ‘deep’ economic crisis; another artificial crisis, according to a known and much worn plan. The durability of the capitalist system is tested and, unfortunately, at the same time steeled through similar ‘crises’ for quite many years now. An experiment organized by few, usually with weak-willed and tame citizens as their guinea pigs; people that passionately (and sometimes without any passion) support and praise their right to choose for themselves who will impoverish and deceive them over the next four years. But this ‘beautiful’ flow of capitalism is essentially destroyed day by day, since society is starting to realize that capitalism does not deserve correction, but destruction. The once distant, yet tangible dream of the ‘ideal life’, namely the wasteful and constant consumption, has begun to crumble for a large part of society. In effect, those who once may have kept their mouth shut, for the sake of a dream, are now gradually contaminated with the beneficial virus of reaction. Hence, people become radicalized, as history has shown, in times of systemic crisis.

The existent

But the fairytale somewhere here has an ending, and we return to the most savage and brutal reality. We face a septicemic capitalism, where the systemic crisis is ever deepening, fascist remnants begin to establish themselves in the authoritarian structures and the disorderly bankruptcy of the country seems nearby. The system’s permanent features are the continuing economic impoverishment of society and the repeated attacks on all that resists. However, despite the continued degradation of the ‘quality’ of life, a vast part of society is still unable to trace the enemy and the dividing line between the two camps. We do not know whether there will be a coup d’état, whether military anthems will be heard, whether army tanks will roll into the centre of Athens or if fighters will be sent to the firing squad. But we know, all too well, that the State will endeavor to get rid of anything resisting it all too quickly. Hence, faced with the threat of mass and violent clashes, the State takes off the mask of the erstwhile mighty capitalism and shows its real, ruthless face. The condition of financial ‘collapse’ is not a process for the self-destruction of the economic system but rather for its readjustment, under specific terms of survival, which are imposed on the largest part of society.

When the invisible becomes visible

How will the State infuse fear in the radicalized parts of society, if not by sending the murderers of the MAT police squads to stifle demonstrators with chemical weapons and beat people to death during the protest marches? How will the State gag the free flow of ideas and hinder the youths' fermentation in the transition of concerns into action, if not by turning the neighbourhood of Exarchia into a militarized zone? How to make the social wrath die down, if not by upgrading terrorism laws? How to send those back home who are ready to lift up their heads, if not by inflicting a 'blow' to the anarchist fighters, subjecting them either to annihilating criminal sentences out of vindictiveness, or to unjust pretrial detentions? Amidst all these, as an ever-growing number of imprisoned anarchists can be observed, we can now say with certainty that all who stubbornly refuse to choose their place in this war are at least inconsistent with their place in history, but also with their own life. Making a brief historical review of the near past, over the last two years (in the wake of the arrests in Halandri) the entire anarchist milieu has come under fire from an uncontrollable and constantly upgraded repressive mechanism, which is aiming at its complete inactivation; through close and, in numerous cases, dangerous surveillances, through raids in houses, hangouts and squats, through the daily parade of all kinds of cops in the neighbourhood of Exarchia, through a clear criminalization of friendly and comradely relationships; while fighters' pretrial detentions are expedited via accelerated procedures, without even taking into account any flimsy or even in some cases nonexistent indictment. Of course, we never had any illusions that, in a period of covert junta, prosecutions would be anything but fabrications and, above all, charges against one's convictions.

At our end, we chose to place four incendiary devices on Saturday, January 14th, 2012, against Audi and Volkswagen car dealerships, located on Mesogeion Avenue in the suburb of Aghia Paraskevi, and on Friday, January 20th, downtown against the Ministry of Culture in Metsovou and Patisision intersecting streets, where its financial management offices are accommodated. We should clarify that, despite the bad weather on Saturday, January 14th, we decided to carry out this move wishing to send an incendiary solidarity message to the comrades P.Masouras and K.Karakatsani, whose motion for suspended execution of their sentences was due in Athens Court of Appeals on Monday, January 16th. The rain (certainly not the fire brigade) may have prevented the vehicles' destruction, yet we went further, assuming our obligation to carry out a second attack, and we dedicate both actions to:

1. P.Masouras and K.Karakatsani, in which case the State's vengefulness combined with the denial of the Inquisitor M.Varela to undersign the court's ruling (it was no coincidence that, after the trial, she was promoted to president of the appellate judges!), are stalling the process month after month, thus waging psychological war on the two comrades.

IMMEDIATE RELEASE FOR ANARCH-ISTS PANAGIOTIS MASOURAS
KONSTANTINA KARAKATSANI

On the 19th and the 5th of March, respectively, when their application will be heard again.

The longer the comrades remain hostages, the more we'll multiply the fires inside metropolis.

2. Stella Antoniou, who is under pretrial detention in Koridallós prisons over the past year, accused for the CCF case, with sole proof her personal relationships with the co-defendant and companion Kostas Sakkas. And while the denials to her claims to be granted release from prison succeed one another (she is currently expecting one more answer), the comrade's health is deteriorating every day, due to a spreading eye disease that requires rigorous and regular medical surveillance; something obviously impossible as long as she's incarcerated.

Stella Antoniou, from the first moment of her arrest, and knowing the cost of her choices, has firmly defended her political identity and her comradely relationships. It is exactly for this reason that she's still held in pretrial detention, it is exactly for this reason that she's experiencing the State's vengefulness.

The question is simple: either with solidarity and dignity, or with submission and fear. And the answer is more dynamic and imperative than ever: utterly side by side with our comrades, until the final victory, until the revolution, the prisons' demolition and beyond...

SOLIDARITY AND IMMEDIATE RE-LEASE FOR ANARCHIST
STELLA ANTONIOU

'I would like you to know what the solidarity created inside me, in those days when nothing made sense and learning how to remake my life had no trace of logic, because you should know I was doing poorly, what happened to me I would wish on very few people, because it was horrific, and in the greatest darkness, there you appeared, small gestures that pushed me to not give up. How could I betray those who risk their lives to give me encouragement? And I learned to conquer life anew, and I know that you will never figure how important you've been. Now I find myself stronger than ever; prison, far from intimidating me, has made me as strong as in those days, how paradoxical life is, because I always said that to have comrades in prison should in no case motivate one to fear, entirely the opposite, it should be the reason for the wick in the bottle of gasoline, for the fuse in the explosive or incendiary charge, for the smile in the insurgent hearts after each day of attack, this I believed before and I still believe it, and now I am the one who finds himself a prisoner; so if my enemies do not succeed in intimidating me when I find myself in their clutches, I see it will be difficult for them to do so with my comrades.'

RESPONSIBILITY CLAIM FOR ARSON BARRAGE IN SOLIDARITY WITH THE IMPRISONED COMRADE STELLA ANTONIOU - ATHENS

On Thursday dawn, February 23rd, we attacked various targets in five different areas of Athens:

- ATM of National Bank of Greece in Thymarakia
- ATM of Marfin bank in Palaio Faliro
- A vehicle of Free Sunday newspaper, owned by publisher Giorgos Kyrtos, in Ilioupoli
- 4 ATMs in Ano Petralona (two of National Bank, one of Piraeus bank, one of Millennium bank)
- A branch of the Ministry of Culture in Exarchia

We dedicate these attacks to the anarchist comrade Stella Antoniou, who is incarcerated in Koridallios women's prisons since December 4th, 2010, originally accused for participation in an unknown terrorist organization, a charge that soon became participation in the Conspiracy of Cells of Fire, according to the abstract scenarios of the police anti-terror unit. The truth is that Stella is prosecuted for her consistent combative stance against the State and the Capital. She maintains this combative stance until today, inside the prison walls, actively participating in mass struggles of inmates, as well as stating her presence in daily prison life issues.

Stella faces a serious chronic health problem, which makes her immediate release and her regular monitoring by doctors imperative, something impossible to take place in the euphemistically called hospital of Koridallios prisons.

The prosecuting authorities' position, through the repeated denials of applications for her release, shows the vindictiveness of the State against the people who still fight; against all those who neither bow their head, nor accept the oppression and misery imposed by the dominant Power.

In our times, when classist inequalities become clear in practice, affecting more and more social strata, we project forward the class solidarity between fighters, the creation of mounds against the plans of domination, the social revolution as the only way out towards the liberation of our lives.

We send our militant greetings to anarchist Stella Antoniou and demand her immediate release.

SOLIDARITY WITH ALEXANDROS MITROUSSIAS, KOSTAS SAKKAS AND GIORGOS KARAGIANNIDIS, WHO ARE PROSECUTED FOR THE SAME CASE

RESPONSIBILITY CLAIM FOR ARSON ON THE DISTRICT COURT OF KALLITHEA

We are experiencing the peculiar economic and political conjuncture when capitalism oscillates unpredictably and the political system is under widespread contest. This contest, though, does not come to propose an alternative solution on a political level, but can be found in the form of general discontent. But the general discontent that pervades the broader social realm is nothing more than a most energetic aspect of inertia. Nevertheless, we view the bases of struggle in neighbourhoods in a positive light, which along with the anarchist space stand as the only counterweight to capitalism that, even though finds itself in recession, continues its onslaught, while the majority of resigned working population leaves social ground to subside.

Due to the given situation, democracy through justice comes to reinstate a multitude of provisions at the forefront, such as the prohibition of demonstrations in the so-called historic centre [of Athens], the granting of the right of ex officio use of weapons by the cops and citizens, promoting the Americanization of the sense of ownership (through the incitement 'citizens, take up arms'). We also speculate that a further amendment and upgrading of the terror law is imminent, aiming at the establishment of a climate of even greater repression and fear. The question we want to pose to everyone is which actions do the anarchist and the wider libertarian milieu take at a time when the nationalists have already begun to form patriotic militias and train themselves in the mountains out of a fear of chaos and anarchy?

ATTACK EVERYWHERE AND ALWAYS

On the occasion of the new prosecutions for the case of the R.O. Conspiracy of Cells of Fire, on Wednesday dawn, March 14th, we torched the district court in the area of Kallithea with incendiary devices. The regime with an unanticipated motion is seeking to renew the pretrial incarcerations through the new round of subpoenas, but also to burden even more the already heavy indictments. We are confident that our comrades are standing intact against the legalistic tricks of the State and the broader stance of the modern Inquisitors.

At this point, we'd like to express our unreserved support with Stella Antoniou who, apart from having a burdened health condition which makes her release from prison imperative, is an ANARCHIST and should be treated as such by her comrades.

We don't forget the imprisoned comrade Giannis Skouloudis who will stand trial by the State on March 21st, 2012, for the arson on vehicles of the public electric power corporation (DEI) and has claimed responsibility for the action; we neither forget the incarcerated comrades Dimitris Dimtsiadis, Babis Tsilianidis, [Dimitris Fessas] and Sokratis Tzifkas, who had chosen the difficult path of clandestinity, were arrested and are now prosecuted for the same case.

We send strength to the anarchist bandit Rami Syrianos.

Incendiary signal to the unrepentant comrades who have chosen the path of attack.

Honour for ever to the member of the R.O. Revolutionary Struggle Lambros Foundas, who fell dead on March 10th, 2010, by cops' bullets.

PS. We report the deliberate concealment of our action by the mass media, a silencing which demonstrates that their role and their position are next to their state superiors and against us. Let us clarify that any informant journalist–assignee of the cops may be faced with our practical discontent, as their cars and houses are as accessible and combustible as those of other scum.

RESPONSIBILITY CLAIM FOR THE BEATING OF A COP OF THE ANTITERRORIST FORCE ON MARCH 25TH 2012 AT DAVAKI SQUARE IN KALLITHEA - ATHENS

While the concert was underway, we located on a side road one of the prosecution pseudo-witnesses/undercovers of the Antiterrorist force (DAEEB), G.Mourdoukoutas, who testified in the trial of the Halandri case.

Besides that the lackey of the modern totalitarian regime has been arrested in the past for an attempted robbery at a betting shop and now roams free, the moment thousands of people are imprisoned for the slightest law violation or even with framed unsound official charges, put his hand in the procedure of repression of revolutionary action and by extension in the arrests of our comrades. 'Therefore he used his hands and poked out his eyes'! Of course we didn't expect the media to mention this specific incident.

But, in the measure of what we can do, we wanted to make it clear towards every direction that as long as the oppressive and juridical mechanisms of the state will revenge the revolutionaries, the individuals which comprise these mechanisms will be our targets. Whether in their houses, in the streets and in the squares of the metropolis we will smash them with every chance we get.
