AGAINST THE REPRESSION:

LET'S SPREAD ANARCHY

Yesterday, Wednesday 16 March, in the context of a repressive operation two anarchist comrades, Evelin and Gianluca, were arrested in Rome. The investigation and the operation are the result of a joint endeavour of the ROS [special operations] of the carabinieri and of the DIGOS [political police], coordinated by the Genoa public prosecutor's office in the figure of public prosecutor Federico Manotti. The two comrades are accused of «possession of explosive material and explosives, attempted manufacture of improvised explosive devices, as well as possession of explosive material with a view to endangering public safety», in conspiracy with unknown persons.

Every time the repressive apparatus of the State snatches away two comrades, two brothers, two friends, it means hours of anger and sadness. Given that the repressive forces are doing their job, fulfilling the tasks for which they were created, comrades are left with the need to act accordingly. Even in these years of social peace, of mass restrictions, of massacres in prisons, of discipline, of war and mobilisation for total war there have been those who have acted, who through action have struck the structures and figures of the State and capital.

We are not interested in going into the merits of the investigation, instead, we are interested in clearly expressing and strongly reaffirming our solidarity with Evelin and Gianluca and the practices they are accused of.

Revolutionary solidarity with the arrested comrades and with all the anarchists imprisoned in State prisons.
