A few months of insurrectional struggle in its own words

Translations from spanish to english by anarchists of the anarchist project act for freedom now in solidarity to the struggle and to the anarchist and subversive prisoners.

“Anarchist solidarity makes it clear that prison is not the end of the path of struggle, but its continuation. The networks between prisoners and like-minded comrades on the outside allow the imprisoned to continue to take part in events or to set up projects as well as to contributions of the different comrades. This way, there is a feedback between the inside and the outside, which enriches and keeps anarchy alive in a time when modern states are perfecting their mechanisms of control, surveillance and repression. That is why the internationalist character of anarchist solidarity is also important. Insurrectionary heat for all prisoners and against the techno-industrial capitalist system!

We can spend our entire lives speaking power that we think about attacking and attack. The here and now is a never-ending string of situations and things that we bring into practice because we're neither soldiers of revolt, nor theoreti-

Work in progress...

From Chile to Italy. A loud cry of insurrectional complicity for Alfredo Cospito (Marcelo Villarroel)

A loud cry of insurrectional complicity for Alfredo Cospito!!!

Alfredo Cospito is an anarchist comrade from Turin imprisoned since September 2012 after the knee-capping of Roberto Adinolfi (on May 7), executive director of Italian nuclear company Ansaldo Nucleare. This act claimed by the “Olga” Cell Informal Anarchist Federation / International Revolutionary Front for which he was sentenced to 10 years and 8 months. He was also sentenced to 20 years (first degree), for the explosive attack on the Carabinieri training school in Fossano (Cuneo) on June 2, 2006, claimed by Terrible Anonymous Revolt – Informal Anarchist Federation, which provoked the state response through the operation “Scripta Manent”.

Alfredo has been an anarchist comrade in active praxis for decades. Always consistent with his anti-authoritarian projectuality, he has maintained several antagonistic initiatives for which, even though he has been in prison for more than 10 years, the Italian fascist state does not forgive him. In May of this year he was transferred to the Bancali prison in Sardinia where he was locked up under the 41 bis extreme isolation regime.

This prison regime was the Italian state’s response in 1992 to the rising violence of the mafia. Since then, political prisoners of the Red Brigades have also been imprisoned under the same regime. Today Alfredo is the first Anarchist held under this sick system of isolation. To be clear, in Italy a prisoner can die because of 41-bis, isolated in a special penitentiary regime which, among other restrictions, consists of being isolated for 22 hours a day, visits restricted to one per month with a member of his/her family for a maximum time of one hour and through a glass barrier, being banned from receiving books or “any other kind of documents” from the outside, and a strict limitation of relations with other prisoners.

At this moment Alfredo has been on hunger strike for more than a month, risking his life and using the only weapon possible: his body. Likewise the comrades Juan Sorroche in the prison of Terni, Anna Beniamino in Rebbibia and Ivan Alocco in M.de A. Villepinte in France have remained on hunger strike in active solidarity with the comrade and his urgent demand to get out of this sick regime of punishment and isolation.

From an extensive time in prison of almost 15 years in territory occupied by the Chilean state, I make a strong call to redouble the combative and complicit solidarity with Alfredo using all possible and imaginable tools in all territories where the anarchist and subversive anti-authoritarian consciousness is expressed in multiple ways, breaking from ghettos and sects, advancing to the real meeting of those who walk along common paths of struggle against the state, prison and capital.

This is the time for constant and untiring action to get the comrade out of such a vindictive regime of confinement where they want to bury him for years. A war cry for total liberation! An unyielding insistence until the destruction of the last bastion of prison society. A complicit embrace to Juan Sorroche, to Anna Beniamino and Ivan Alocco from the south of the world where they accompany us in our daily struggles and resistances!!! To Alfredo all the Newen and the immemorial strength of those who have given their lives in the struggle for freedom in every rebel territory of this rotten world that we want to see fall. Let’s get Alfredo Cospito out of isolation! Against the 41bis and all regimes of confinement, punishment and isolation!!! Death to the state and long live anarchy!!! Amulepe taiñ weichan!!! As long as misery exists, there will be rebellion!

ideas that incite action, and he has also concerned himself with being part of the debates that various groups and individuals promote in different territories.

In this way Alfredo, despite all the difficulties, continues to be an active and very valuable comrade in the construction of destructive ideologies. Those in power know that Alfredo's pen is dangerous, that is why it is better to keep him in the smallest cage possible with as many eyes on him as possible to control his every move.

The 41 bis, was born to dismantle criminal gangs, mafias, subduing their leaders by accepting their repentance and exist from their organization, in exchange for letting them out of the regime. It is necessary and urgent to denounce the fact that a prisoner can die, as has already happened because of 41 bis, isolated in a special penitentiary regime that, among other restrictions, consists of an isolation of 22 hours a day, with only one possibility of visit with a member of your family per month lasting no more than one hour through a glass divider, without physical contact. It is forbidden to receive books and any other type of documents from the outside.

According to the last modifications of 2009, the Minister of Justice may order this prison sentence for any detainee accused of crimes related to organized crime, through a first decree for a period of four years, indefinitely renewable, every two years. In Alfredo's case, leaving the regime is somewhat more complex, since he does not belong to any organization and in terms of repentance, he would have to renounce Anarchy.

Alfredo has been very clear in his position against the prison regime, his unwavering response of not submitting or repenting, maintaining a willingness to fight, using his body as a tool, is another example of the strong seditious convictions that he possesses.

With these words, I would like to make a call to everyone to join with Alfredo to spread news of his situation, to show solidarity and above all to act against those who are adding more chainlinks to Cospito's chain.

I take this opportunity to send a big hug to my comrade Juan Sorroche, who joined Alfredo's mobilization. Alfredo and Juan, their actions and coherence, fill anti-authoritarian hearts with pride!

For the destruction of all forms of domination,
 Fire to the prisons,
 End 41 bis.

Long live Anarchy!

Words of Anarchist Comrade Mónica Caballero with Alfredo Cospito

A few days ago, I received the news that the indomitable Alfredo Cospito began a hunger strike to demand his release from the 41 bis legal torture regime.
 For those who do not know Alfredo Cospito, he is an anarchist comrade kidnapped by the Italian state, since 2012, for an attack against one of those responsible for the nuclear disaster in Fukushima. This action was claimed by the Olga FAI-FRI faction and Alfredo took responsibility for it. Since this conviction, the comrade has been prosecuted in several repressive operations, such as Scripta Manet, Sybilla, which have managed to obtain convictions and have added more years to the comrade's already long sentence.
 The 41 bis is basically a regime of total isolation in which the prisoner is restricted, limited and censored in all his communications. Censorship is one of the Italian state's main motivations for applying the 41 bis to Alfredo since the comrade has always had the opportunity to spread informal anarchist

Incendiary Attack at Instituto Nacional for Monica, Francisco and Against Safe Classroom, Repressive Laws and Anti-squat Laws

On Thursday, August 17, banners, pamphlets, barricades and molotov confrontations were deployed against the presence of the carabineros (COP), between Alameda and Arturo Pratt.

Banners and leaflets read: "Organized students mobilize against repressive laws. No to the anti-squat law, safe classroom and trigger happy law. Delinquents forever", "kick a narco, become anarco" and "Faced with the trial against the comrades, unleash solidarity with Monica and Francisco".

Letter of solidarity from Wallmapu
 To all those who struggle and to public opinion in general.
 Throughout the history of humanity, the pueblos have risen up, fought, resisted against tyranny and oppression imposed in different ways and different contexts. This is how the capitalist system through the state and government as its faithful dogs do the impossible of stopping anyone who fights for their pueblo, increasing sentences, creating new laws to segregate and dismantle every bastion of struggle and resistance.

It should be noted that for all those committed to the struggle against the capitalist system, this only increases our ties of solidarity and support. It is for this reason that from Wallmapu territory, Temuco prison, we express our support and solidarity with the current process that comrade Mónica Caballero and comrade Francisco Solar are going through, giving them all our newen, and at the same time, highlighting all the courage, valor and bravery they have shown to face this stage marked by unjust accusations, where the real criminals, terrorists, delinquents and murderers are free with their hands stained with blood.

A strong embrace full of much newen, solidarity, support, hope and resistance.
 Freedom for Monica Caballero!!!
 Freedom for Francisco Solar!

Claim for Arson Attack on RED Bus Outside San Miguel Prison

Arson attack on RED bus outside San Miguel Prison

When we visualize the face of the enemy, we immediately recognize the prison and its penitentiary system, with all its apparatuses and officials, as a target to destroy since this is where they have historically sought to imprison revolutionary minds and actions.

Both in the past and in the present, we know that our comrades in prison have had to resist constant harassment of their bodies on a daily basis, as the gendarmerie tries to systematically demoralize our imprisoned comrades through humiliation, punishment, torture, threats to take away their visits or orders in the face of any act that alters the codes of domination within the units.

That is why, by means of a precision attack, we set fire to a RED bus with an efficient incendiary device outside the San Miguel Prison, aimed at disrupting the passivity that wafts through the streets, throughout this society that surveilles and controls behaviour, longing for submission and building a false belief in the impossibility of fighting it.

A special greeting to comrade Mónica Caballero, who is in a new trial against her together with Francisco Solar for several explosive attacks against repressors and powerful people. Insurrectional solidarity with Mónica and Francisco!

A warm embrace for Itamar Diaz who recently experienced the punishment of the San Miguel jailers after confronting their authoritarian dynamics. Also for the comrades in Santiago who were dispersed to different units after showing solidarity with Itamar.

For all of you, a gesture of solidarity turned into fire, trying to oxygenate the daily life in prison, know that you are with us in every action. A speedy recovery to comrade Zukato.

For the abolition of prisons!

For the multiplication of autonomous action!

Seditious Cell Santiago Maldonado – New Subversion

Montevideo, Territory occupied by the Uruguayan State: Gesture of Solidarity with Monica and Francisco

On the afternoon of July 17, 2023, on the eve of the beginning of the trial against the anarchists Mónica Caballero and Francisco Solar, we decided to carry out a solidarity action in front of the Chilean embassy in Montevideo. The purpose of this action is to demonstrate the violence and viciousness of the government in power and the justice system in general that has kept them in preventive detention for three years now, a government that even dressed in its best progressive clothes cannot hide the fact that it keeps political prisoners in its prisons.

We do so once again to affirm that there are political prisoners in Chile and to back our comrades absolutely. Their actions are framed in the struggle against the violence of the State, they took the initiative and returned the blows received.

The repressive tradition of the post-dictatorship governments did nothing more than plunge the population into a loop of misery and violence. It is in this context that the events for which they will be judged starting July 18 take place. Justice, neither slow nor lazy, will do its best to give an exemplary punishment and will try to bury our comrades for decades under the walls of their prisons. To which we respond once and a thousand times that they will not be able to, even by convicting them, because we are many and we are everywhere, we will be the voice that amplifies their words and the hands that carry out the actions to come.

Without truce and in spite of their constant intimidation we are with the rebels hating the powerful.

A warm embrace to all like-minded comrades who show their solidarity day by day.

Neither guilty nor innocent!

Fear will change sides!

Long live anarchy!

Prisoners to the streets!

Montevideo, Territory occupied by the Uruguayan State,
July 2023

Communiqué from different territories of Abya Yala in solidarity with Alfredo Cospito, who is since almost 90 days on hunger strike against the 41 bis punishment and isolation regime.(América Latina)

Public declaration by anarchist, subversive anti-authoritarian, nihilist, anti-speciesist and anarcho-feminist affinities regarding the current situation of comrade Alfredo Cospito, locked up in the Italian fascist prisons and since almost 90 days on hunger strike.

As comrades with affinity to the anarchist struggle against prisons, prison society and the system of domination, we want to express through these words our unwavering support for comrade Alfredo Cospito, kidnapped by the Italian state and held in the prison of Bancali, Sassari, Sardinia – an extermination center where he is detained after having been subjected to the infamous 41 bis regime. This regime aims to destroy him as a person by preventing him from maintaining contact with any of his comrades inside, as well as outside the prisons.

Alfredo has been on hunger strike since almost 90 days. He demands the end of the application of this annihilating regime, which blackmails anyone who enters it, through the torture of isolation, to choose between collaboration with justice or death – the only two occasions in which 41 bis ceases to be applied.

As comrades in affinity we repudiate the torture applied to Alfredo and any other comrade. We know that they fear us because of our uncompromising commitment to end with the system of domination, a commitment that does not end either with torture, prison, or death itself and, for this reason, Alfredo is risking his life firmly and without hesitation.

From the territory occupied by the Chilean colonialist state and from different territories of Abya Yala we want to make it clear that our comrade's struggle is also ours and that the consequences of a bad outcome will be seen and felt everywhere.

Enemies, states and jailers, do not forget that divisive borders are yours, not ours, and that our responses will not go unnoticed if one more of us is taken.

As anarchists, nihilists and subversives we know that we will always be in conflict, a historical and continuous conflict, in which life and death constantly meet in a never-ending struggle until the demise of all civilization imposed by power and relations of domination.

Comrade Alfredo Cospito, we know these words will be denied to you. However we want you to know that we are by your side from afar and that your struggle, as the one of many others, is and will be present in our daily action.

Death to prison society and to all the states and institutions that sustain it.

We demand the end of 41 bis for Alfredo Cospito and the end of isolation for all our comrades locked up in prisons worldwide.

We call for solidarity through all means with Alfredo.

End to 41bis!!

End to prison isolation!!

Immediate freedom of all anarchist, subversive and anti-speciesist prisoners!

Santiago, Chile, : Alfredo out of 41 bis! Protest outside the Italian embassy in solidarity with Alfredo Cospito on hunger strike for 107 days (3 February 2023)

Santiago: Alfredo out of 41 bis! Protest outside the Italian embassy in solidarity with Alfredo Cospito on hunger strike for 107 days (3 February 2023) On February 3rd 2023, at over 100 days' hunger strike of the comrade Alfredo Cospito against the brutal isolation of 41 bis in the cells of Italy, about 50 of us called a protest in front of the Italian embassy in order to put internationalist solidarity into practice. The anarchist and subversive prisoners in the Chilean prisons have started a fast in solidarity with Alfredo's hunger strike. In this context and despite the considerable presence of police armed with water cannon and tear gas, we managed to push our way in front of the walls protecting the representatives of the Italian government, the same government that is currently taking the assassination of Alfredo upon itself behind the bars. Banners, flyers, stickers, graffiti and shouts filled the streets surrounding the Italian embassy, then we made our way to the Chilean-Italian institute of culture located a few blocks away. Out Alfredo from 41 bis! Let's stop Alfredo being murdered by the Italian State ! Freedom for the anarchist and subversive prisoners!

Letter from Ambro – anarchist prisoner in Chile for the Week of Solidarity

I wish I could transform myself into a wolf, so I could sink my teeth into the womb of society in an orgy of destruction. Bruno Filippi

From some corner of the Chilean prisons

Having finished my daily hours in the courtyard, from my cell I throw myself into writing a few lines in order to find a brief moment of freedom that will interrupt my prison reality. If I think of anarchist solidarity, the first thing that comes to my mind is my arrival in prison, when my comrades who had already been held hostage for various political reasons took charge of orienting me and gave me the tools to survive in this hostile and indifferent world. Anarchist solidarity makes it clear that prison is not the end of the path of struggle, but its continuation. The networks between prisoners and like-minded comrades on the outside allow the imprisoned to continue to take part in events or to set up projects as well as to contributions of the different comrades. This way, there is a feedback between the inside and the outside, which enriches and keeps anarchy alive in a time when modern states are perfecting their mechanisms of control, surveillance and repression. That is why the internationalist character of anarchist solidarity is also important. Anarchist solidarity, where every strike, action or propaganda throughout the the world is oxygen in the veins of the prisoner, giving them strength to follow the path of struggle and maintain the fighting spirit. I am deeply grateful for the help given by the comrades of A-Fund. It has been 5 months since I was deprived of my precious freedom on March 29th. And at the start of my trial the expenses are increasing. I am grateful for the selfless help and faithful commitment to the cause. "I wish I could transform myself into a wolf, so I could sink my teeth into the womb of society in an orgy of destruction." I appeal for solidarity with the anarchist comrade Alfredo Cospito, who continues to suffer harassment and censorship at the hands of the Italian State, with the comrades imprisoned in the Greek jails, with Monica and Francisco who stand tall with their heads held high without regrets or hesitation despite being on trial and risking more than 100 years in prison, and with Aldo and Lucas, anarchist prisoners accused of making and placing an explosive device in the national directorate of the gendarmerie.

Anarchist history is not a sequence of simple and isolated acts, although many would like it to be; to speak of the adventurers, the crazy poets of history, the unwavering ones with heroic personalities, to fill the chronology of some novelistic book of those who hide behind academic titles or some cushy and comfortable desk. But our history could not be further from that – a multitude of sparks, of attempts without pretension or arrogance, voluntary impulses of determined individualities that await neither the conditions nor the moment, that unite freely or act alone always with the same ungovernable pulse.

Manifesto of the October 18th Movement

Note: This communique was previously in “Triple explosive attack against critical infrastructure.”

To the people of Chile.

As a first point, as Movimiento 18 de Octubre we take responsibility for the three explosive attacks on capitalist infrastructure, sabotages carried out in Valparaíso by the Comando Mauricio Arenas Bejas, in Bío Bío by the Comando Lafkenche Pilmaiquen and in Ñuble by the Comando Luisa Toledo. The reasons are explained below.

A dark period is approaching in Chile, marked by an incipient fascism penetrating the masses, which today has positioned a conservative and backward right wing in charge of drafting the new constitution, which will govern the destinies of the country for the next decades or, failing that, will perpetuate the constitution emanating from the dictatorship. But how did we arrive at this scenario, less than four years after the beginning of the popular revolt that uncovered the structural abuses of this capitalist state, that mobilized millions in rejection of the AFP, the commercialization of health and education, the safeguarding of water for human life, the protection of the environment and the rejection of precarious work? Everything seems to be very well elaborated.

Since the signing of the agreement for Peace on November 15, 2019, when the criminal government of Sebastián Piñera was up against the ropes, the saviour appeared who today is in charge of order and of perpetuating the systematic abuses of the capitalist system. With Boric, the right wing and the political class as a whole planned their agenda for the current period, understanding that a young face, heir to the student movement, could calm the waters of revolt, with the addition of the constituent promise that would change the bases of institutionality and echo the popular demands.

The juridical illusion of the new constitution, added to the pandemic, demobilized the people who today observe how everything will change so that nothing changes. The failure of the first convention, an absolutely exclusive affair of this puppet government and the communist party, gave way to the conservative offensive which was very well designed by the oligarchy, the political class and the media, installing its security agenda in the face of an insipid government. Without having any capacity to react, this government has observed how the right wing is gaining ground among the most dispossessed masses, disposing at will of the new constitutional council, where the neoliberal model will be rearranged for the next 50 years under a strong Portalian order that ensures the stability that the companies need to continue plundering the country at will. Just as the oligarchy did in Lirquén in 1833, Alessandri in 1925 and the dictatorship in 1980. The design repeats itself.

This explains the enactment of the Nain-Retamal law, which today gives retroactive impunity to the criminal police who violated human rights during the Revolt and who today are strengthened as the armed wing of the political class and the economic model in the face of any new revolt or mobilization for popular demands. The best example of this is the violent eviction of the Marrichiwew housing project in Viña del Mar, where numerous families were deprived of their right to housing. All this legal-political framework undoubtedly seeks to consolidate the new process of capitalist accumulation by dispossession, where land and water have become the new commodities to the detriment of the people under the pretext of economic growth. And here again the government, which claims to be of the left, has given the TPP11 its stamp of approval, with the expansion of the Los Bronces mining company, the pollution of the Quintero-Puchuncavi industrial cordon and its gross omission in the face of the ecological disaster that the forestry industry has generated in Wallmapu. It is here where the sabotage of a high tension tower in Valparaíso by Comando Mauricio Arenas Bejas and of the railway line in Itata by Comando Luisa Toledo, on which only raw materials from the

With the start of preparations for the oral trial of comrades Mónica and Francisco, we call on you to come to the premises of the Injustice Center (located at Av. This is the beginning of a process in which the state apparatus will seek to break our networks and momentum, which is why solidarity remains part of our direct confrontation with any authority.

Facing the Preparation of the Trial Against Mónica and Francisco

On March 14, 2023 a series of hearings will begin in the so-called preparation for the oral trial against anarchist comrades Mónica Caballero and Francisco Solar. This phase, which we expect to last a month, will decide which evidence will be brought to trial and which will not.

Both are accused of the explosive attack against the Tánica Building in the midst of the revolt (2020), while Francisco is accused of sending explosive packages to former Interior Minister Rodrigo Hinzpeter and the 54th police station (2019). The prosecution requests 30 years in prison for Monica and 129 for Francisco.

The comrades will be taken from San Miguel prison and Rancagua prison to the justice center for the first hearing, where they will face this judicial process virtually.

In this next step of the judicial process, it is still more necessary than ever to leave aside victimist narratives in order to open debates on the vindication and legitimacy of political violence on all levels, not only from the spectators' box but in the form of concrete support and solidarity to those who face prosecution for such actions.

There's no space for indifference: Solidarity and complicity with those who attack the powerful and repressors!

Freedom for Monica and Francisco!

Freedom for anarchist and subversive prisoners!

Internationalist Call for Actions in Solidarity with Marcelo Villarroel after 15 Years in Prison & in the Context of the Permanent Campaign for his Freedom!

Internationalist Call for Actions in Solidarity with Marcelo Villarroel after 15 Years in Prison & in the Context of the Permanent Campaign for his Freedom!

On March 15, in the context of comrade Alfredo Cospito's admirable determination in Italian prison, and comrades Mónica Caballero and Francisco Solar's preparation for trial, antiauthoritarian and subversive prisoner, comrade Marcelo Villarroel marks 15 years of imprisonment. 15 years ago, he was captured in Argentina while fleeing Chile in clandestinity due to the case known as "Security". The antagonistic actions against power that the comrade chose as his form of life at a very young age made him a target of the powerful and their media. They created a brutal and crude spectacle of persecution out of the expropriation of that bank in the center of Santiago, Chile and the resulting death of the cop Moyano in October 2007.

The state kidnapping of Marcelo, which in concrete terms is a concealed life sentence, is sustained by the most rotten filth of the dictatorial inheritance: Pinochet's putrid Military court, even in 2023. Something that seems unthinkable 50 years after the military coup and the start of the civic-military dictatorship.

However, this parallel justice, that no one seems to notice, hear or mention, remains intolerably operational. This was demonstrated this past February 27 at the sentence review hearing held in the 7th Guarantee Court of Santiago, which confirmed that Marcelo should remain in prison until 2036. Specifically, Marcelo could have applied for parole since December 2019, but the modification of DL 321 by law 21.124 in January 2019 applies retroactively to him.

To have an anti-authoritarian comrade held captive for years under sentences coming from military rulings only demonstrates the shameless trickery of an oligarchy that seeks to use prison to exterminate anyone who interrupts the expansion of its domination.

Fifteen years after Marcelo's kidnapping we call on all comrades, individuals, spaces and collectives that build autonomous and anarchic subversive antagonism from anti-prison internationalism to a week of action and agitation in solidarity with the comrade from Monday March 13 to Monday March 20 for the Annulment of the Convictions of Pinochet's Military Justice and for his immediate release to the street.

Putting our imagination from insurrectionary complicity to use.

Annul the military justice sentences now!

End prison society!

Freedom for Marcelo Villarroel now!

Subversive, anarchist, anti-speciesist and Mapuche prisoners out of jail now!

As long as there is misery there will be rebellion!!!

Nueva Aldea pulp mill of the Arauco company of the Angelini group circulate, are vindicated. Neither the communities nor citizens move along these roads, only the eucalyptus trees of this forestry company that have caused so much damage to the ecosystem, the Itata River and the surrounding rural communities.

The new order designed by the political and business classes also seeks to annihilate the dignified Mapuche resistance that day by day confronts the forestry companies and landowners who usurp their historic territory. In the last few weeks we have seen how the government together with the right wing have orchestrated a set-up to punish the Mapuche political prisoners in the Angol prison, dispersing them to different prisons, taking them away from their communities and families. We understand that the Mapuche resistance greatly annoys the capitalists who have their interests in the Mapuche territory and that is why they need to strike at their morale to the point of subordinating them. But we also know that they will not succeed despite the state of emergency, the unprecedented militarization and the legislative agenda of the political class that approved the law against timber theft and will soon enact the law of usurpations that seek to protect the private property of the usurpers. Faced with this scenario, we send our warm greetings to the Mapuche nation, to their political prisoners on hunger strike and communities in resistance, and you can count on us for future conspiracies.

It is in this context that the Comando Lafkenche Pilmaiken attacked a high tension tower in Los Alamos, a commune where the Special Forces bases of the Carabineros and the Navy are located, the centre of the repressive policies in the territory. With this action we also demand the immediate return to Angol of the Mapuche political prisoners dispersed to Rancagua, Concepción and Puerto Montt.

50 years after the coup, we make it clear that there is no room for hesitation. The right wing, Boric and their ignominy try to close this chapter under the excuse of national unity. We remind them that the blood of our heroes will not be compromised and that as long as we do not know where the last disappeared detainee is, we will neither forgive nor forget. To the criminals of the communities who are still at large, do not sleep. To the fascists Alexis Lopez, Pancho Malo, APRA, republicans all, and the capitalist political class, be clear that you are our class enemies and that circumstances are not in your favour.

The call is to the people of Chile. To open their eyes in the face of this new scenario that is coming. To organize again in the neighbourhoods, in the environmentalist coordinations, in the unions, in the student federations and in the academy. To return to dispute the principles that made rage explode that October 18. To kill the AFP. To kill private health and education. To defend water. To defend life. To reclaim Chile for the people.

Freedom for all political prisoners of the revolt, Mapuche, anarchists and subversives.

One Less Naturgy Car in Complicity with Monica and Francisco

13/7/23

The early morning of July 13, a group of insolent people stopped daily time for a few seconds to place an incendiary device in a car belonging to Naturgy in the neighbourhood of Horta. Naturgy unlimitedly exploits the resources of the earth and drives the machinery of the capitalist system creating rivers and rivers of blood; Blood of the people of the plundered villages, the workers – those who protest and those who do not – even those who pay them unbearable prices to amass their wealth. For every euro they earn: one car less! It only takes a few household materials and arming ourselves with our well-deserved thirst for revenge to go out one night to cause damage. We do not intend to stop: we have in front of us a city full of targets to attack, knowing that the next day they will feel the heat provoked by anarchy more closely. Let them fear us, let them fear us! Enough of the social order that pleases no one but that everyone supports! We enjoy seeing its machinery burn every time. With this second of insolence we remember the actions of Monica and Francisco, prisoners in the Chilean state for attacking the police station, Minister Hinzpeter and the neighbourhood of the rich. They also had a prolific stay in the Spanish territory. We will follow their trial closely on July 18. They cannot imprison us all, because the anarchic fire expands, changes shape, is unpredictable. Freedom for Monica and Francisco! Insurrectionary heat for all prisoners and against the techno-industrial capitalist system!

Words of Comrade Lucas Hernández 6 Months After the Arrests for the Gendarmería Case

June 26, 2023

“For me, there was no alternative to freedom except death. I didn’t conceive of the term prison or jail as anything but a synonym for death...” Juan José Garfía

Months go by without much of anything new, inserted in this stronghold of the underworld, which is silenced and hidden. It is difficult to understand that your movement is guarded and limited at every moment. It is easy to nourish myself with hatred if my eyes see daily officials, abuses, bars and uniforms in this implanted and repugnant routine, which overwhelms and suffocates.

But that does not paralyze or torment. Neither their punishments nor their decorated clothes make me doubt my ideas and position towards this system of domination. In this process I have had the good fortune to live and experience political imprisonment with various comrades. Supporting each other, but we will not always be together, nor close, nor prisoners. Anti-prison solidarity has brought us together.

Captivity can suffocate, exhaust, but will never defeat me... this prison process has reaffirmed how little I believe in. A joyful disappointment in those I once called brothers and sisters... today there are few I still love.

I have always wanted to cast aside any kind of pretensions, protagonists towards their spectacles. I am only a stealthy anarchist, brother of my brothers and sisters, and a declared enemy of this or any state.

Resilience is part of this everyday, laments and regrets I leave to those who want to conquer the sky. I will be part of the dangerous freedom even if it takes me months or years.

“I remain steadfast in what I believe and want for this disgusting civilized world and its filthy progressives. Destruction and freedom are a volcano inside me” - Kevin Garrido.

My respects to the comrades who keep on striking and despite some unforeseen failures keep on trying. Their gestures are love in war for those of us who are held hostage; it is a slap in the face to those who persecuted and imprisoned us.

To the comrades who have been part of my process,

The Wound is Still Bleeding and the Fuse is still Burning. A new March 29th. Words of Anarchist Prisoner Aldo Hernández

March 16, 2023

Metal against metal, heavy blows at the entrance of the building where I slept with my beloved daughter and my brother that night. I reacted to their machine guns and the imminent violence to which we would be subjected by waking up my daughter, getting her dressed, and telling her that the police were coming for me. I managed to tell her that I loved her forever and ever, to be strong and calm. I stood in front of her in the face of their weapons and arrogance. Damn cowards, they investigated me for more than a year, followed me, placed cameras, photographed me, listened to me... they were on my heels and preferred to expose a minor to the violent raid that we experienced that early morning of December 22, 2022. Despicable beings that only did not stop me before out of fear. They clearly knew that this individual would not receive them in a good way, on the contrary, with all the courage that those of us who carry the confrontation against power and its servants, that courage that runs through our veins, that the enemies will never be able to understand. They came to me in the pure style of the fascism of the D.I.N.A or the C.N.I. I cannot forgive much less forget that they subjected my daughter to a “subtle interrogation”. I hate them a little more every second. Remember that though today my body is imprisoned, my ideas and projects continue to travel illegally through the streets of this territory with the desire to concretize in action what I have reflected with different comrades, sisters and brothers.

I send hugs in this month that is marked with our blood in the history of which I am also a part.

Encouragement and strength to those who make memory a daily exercise to nourish us. On certain dates the streets are ours and we can give way to the possibility of attack against the different police forces, those who carry in their history and uniforms the blood and pain that we have been forced to feel for the loss of beautiful loved ones.

FIRE AND EXPLOSIONS TO THE LAIRS OF THE ENEMY. SHOT BY SHOT AND BLASTS TO THEIR UNIFORMS. YOUNG COMBATANTS OF YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW WILL CONTINUE TO BE PRESENT IN THE STREETS, WITNESSES OF OUR COURAGE AND INSURRECTIONAL CONVICTION. MARCH 29TH NOBODY IS FORGOTTEN.

My warmest greetings and complicity to the beautiful and historic population of La Victoria, to the beloved Villa Francia where the words of Luisa Toledo and Manuel Vergara are echoes that resound loudly in every passage and avenue forever, to the brothers and sisters of Lo Hermida and Peñalolen who create scenarios of confrontations, to La Pincoya that does not forget its subversive and rebellious character.

Active Solidarity with Alfredo Cospito from Joaquín García

Without needing to idealize him, it is inevitable to feel a deep admiration and respect for Alfredo Cospito, who has been able to sustain an extensive hunger strike, using his body as a battlefield, and an unwavering decision in his struggle to end his isolation in the nefarious 41 bis regime in which he has been for many months. For many people, it can be difficult to have a concrete notion of what this means, I think that perhaps our individual experiences bring us a little closer to such a crude reality. Even so, it is impossible to feel what those who throw themselves into this battle feel, the physical and mental exhaustion, the sleepless nights, every gesture costing the greatest effort. We are left with the anguish, the nausea, and the eternal frustration of feeling that we still have to do a lot to balance the scales on which our defeats and victories are measured, if only a little.

Anarchist, nihilistic, informal and international solidarity with Alfredo!

Let the cry of his body at war resound in every action!

and remained in the military police battalion of Peñalolén for some time. A blow to his honor, but he knew he was among comrades and in a military compound. After some judicial procedures he managed to get permission to walk free while waiting out that slow case.

Already getting on in years, he was overwhelmed by the case against him when the TV started showing a bank robbery and the death of a policeman in the center of the capital.

He followed the news attentively, through each report of that large magazine that he read in his living room, until the outcome led him to a name he already knew: Marcelo Villarroel, former militant of the Mapu Lautaro and current autonomous subversive fighter, whom he had sentenced to half a century in prison, but who had been able to get out thanks to hunger strikes, internal struggles and outside support, gaining access to parole.

He followed the news with some attention, until Marcelo was arrested in Argentina, but he no longer held any relevant position. He made a couple of calls, more out of curiosity and some concern about the continuation of his work: the sentence. He was reassured to learn that Marcelo's parole was immediately revoked. In other words, he would have to serve the full sentence of the military prosecutor's office, in addition to the sentence handed down by the new justice system.

A smile and peace of mind knowing that his legacy would remain.

In 2013 the justice system handed down the sentence of 10 years for kidnapping and 10 years for illicit association against Hernán Ramírez Rurange, and this time he would be sentenced to Punta Peuco.

But Ramírez was not willing to lose his military honor, nor to serve a sentence for saving Chile or to acknowledge his participation in miserable murders to those he holds dear. He grabbed the gun with his wrinkled hand, pointed it at his head and pulled the trigger. He is rushed to the Military Hospital, but nothing remains of him but a corpse.

The echo of the shot could not be heard behind the thick walls of the High Security Prison or the High Security modules in the Rancagua penitentiary complex where Marcelo is serving out the sentences that were handed down between uniforms and pacts.

Triple explosive attack against critical infrastructure

Los Álamos (Chile), June 9, 2023. The pylon of the high-voltage power line failed to withstand the shock of the attack.

In the course of one long weekend, three explosive attacks hit various critical infrastructures in Chile. On Friday June 9, 2023, two high-voltage pylons were hit first. One at dawn in the municipality of Placilla, some ten kilometers east of Valparaíso, where Chile's largest port and industrial facilities are located. The second, at around 11 p.m., took place in Los Álamos (Bío Bío region), home to the special forces bases of the Carabineros and the Navy, one of the centres of Chile's repressive policies. While the first pylon, with two of its four support bars damaged, remained standing, the second collapsed to the ground, cutting off power between Cañete and Tirúa in the Los Álamos area.

The third attack occurred at around 3am on Tuesday June 13, on the railway bridge over the Itata river in the Ñuble region. The bridge, whose sleepers were blown up and rails shattered by the explosion, is used for freight trains, and in particular for the movement of raw materials such as the thousands of industrial eucalyptus trees destined to supply the Nueva Aldea pulp mill of the Arauco company (Angelini Group). Owned by Chile's national railroad company (EFE), the line was operated by Ferrocarril del Pacífico (Fepasa), the main rail freight company in the south-central region of the country.

Ñuble region (Chile), June 13, 2023. The pulp industry's railway bridge no longer functions. Following this series of coordinated attacks on strategic infrastructure in three different regions of Chile, (leftist) President Gabriel Boric took the opportunity to call an extraordinary meeting of all branches of government, at which he set the objective of making a reform proposal within 30 days, to simplify the Anti-Terrorism Act to facilitate prosecutions. As is always the case in such cases, the aim is on the one hand for the government to make an announcement to assert that it is not standing idly by, and on the other hand to reinforce the authoritarian face of the state by bringing out an old project that was already in its files. Finally, investigators from the Carabinieri's OS-9 group announced that they would be studying footage of toll roads located near the attack sites, and that they were also in the process of collecting data on which phones were active near the affected infrastructures on the days and times of the attacks.

On June 14, 2023, in a communiqué sent to the press, these three consecutive attacks were claimed by a new coordination that had joined the panorama of diffuse guerrilla groups already present in Chile (notably in Mapuche territory): the Movimiento 18 de Octubre, or October 18 Movement, whose name is an explicit reference to the Chilean uprising that broke out on that day four years ago, following an increase in ticket prices. On October 18, 2019, the first day of the uprising, 77 of the capital's 136 metro stations had been destroyed (20 of them completely burned), before it spread over several months.

Placilla (Chile), June 9, 2023. The damaged pylon of the high-voltage line near Valparaíso.

In the communique, the October 18 Movement begins by taking responsibility for "three explosive attacks on capitalist infrastructures: the sabotage perpetrated in Valparaíso by Comando Mauricio Arenas Bejas, in Bío Bío by Comando Lafkenche Pilmaiquen and in Ñuble by Comando Luisa Toledo".

One of these groups takes its name from Mapuche territory (the Pilmaiquen river flows through the territory of the coastal Mapuche, the Lafkenche). The second is named after Mauricio Arenas Bejas, one of those responsible for the attempted assassination of General-Dictator Pinochet on September 7, 1986, who was arrested and shot seven times in the body by the police the following year, then escaped from Pública prison in 1990, before dying the following year at the age of 33. As for Luisa Toledo, who died in 2021 at the age of 82, she was a left-wing militant respected in many revolutionary milieus, notably for her struggle under the Pinochet dictatorship (but not only) for the memory of her two sons murdered by carabinieri in 1985 (they were members of the MIR), and also for her participation/defense of riotous demonstrations under democracy, including those of the October 2019 uprising.

Paillaco: trucks for the future wind farm burned to the ground.

At dusk on Friday June 16, 2023, in the Chilean commune of Paillaco (Los Ríos region), a small hooded and armed group broke into the construction site of a wind farm. After neutralizing the guards, they set fire to the 14 cement-trucks and a front-end loader on site.

The future Caman wind farm, where the multinational Mainstream Renewable Power (with Norwegian, Japanese and Irish capital) intends to build no less than 44 industrial wind turbines with a capacity of 150 Megawatts in Mapuche territory, had already suffered an incendiary attack on January 16, when the first truck went up in smoke. In August 2022, in the municipality of Angol (La Araucanía region),

A Legacy of Disgrace: On the situation of comrade Marcelo Villarroel Sepúlveda

The backlog of pages and cases passed from one office to another, from one department to another and from one ministry to another. The pages were still white, they had not yet yellowed as they eventually would. To tell the truth, many things at that time passed from one office to another, the transition accommodated and rearranged things so that nothing changed.

The urban guerrilla warfare, assaults, executions, brass, gunpowder, statements of armed hooded men, stolen cars, banks and blasts of the nineties were translated into the legal language of illicit association, homicide, co-perpetrator of homicide, formation of a combat group, robbery with intimidation, serious injuries and an almost infinite etcetera.

Five crimes in different folders that were grouped using their respective judicial nomenclatures were prosecuted by court officer Arnoldo Dreyse Jolland, star of the judicial system during the last years of the dictatorship. With the end of the dictatorship and the beginning of democracy, the players are shuffled and Hernán Ramírez Rurange became more relevant. Former head of the National Intelligence Directorate of the Army and military judge in the 1990s, all these files lead to Ramírez.

There was no need for him to read them in their entirety; with a quick glance he knew who was who and what was necessary for a harsh sentence. Ramírez had been Pinochet's personal aide-de-camp and deeply resented this transition of the "political gentlemen", but he also knew what was happening in the streets and the need to continue with the complete extermination of subversion. The countless attacks, weapons seizures, ambushes and assaults showed that the strength of the various armed groups had not completely stopped after the plebiscite. The dictatorship was already worn out and it was necessary to adapt to the new times in order to strip those who were not even satisfied with the vote of their last breath. There was blood, a lot of blood staining the streets of democracy. Ramírez signed everything he had to sign, increased all the fines he could increase, doubled all the crimes he could. Using a pencil he added everything up with a smile on his face: fifteen plus eight plus ten plus ten plus ten plus three... A forty-six year sentence against his defendant, that 19-year-old militant of the Mapu Lautaro.

But those years were also hectic for Ramírez, and he was conspiring in his own way. While testifying, he was accused of helping one of the murderers of union leader Tucapel Jiménez get out of the country. Ramírez and his cronies-in-arms learned that the DINA chemist Eugenio Berrios, expert manufacturer of poisonous gases, was to testify for the death of Orlando Letelier. The transition was beginning to take several emblematic cases against repressors to trial.

A few quick meetings and conversations between Ramírez and his comrades-in-arms and Berrios was taken out of the country, his body appearing on a beach in Uruguay in 1995. Silencing his own accomplices and collaborators was no problem, they weren't the only ones killing each other like rats. In the nineties Ramírez made his contribution to the legal system of the transition: Silencing and taking care of his comrades-in-arms on the one hand, and on the other, burying those who fought against the prevailing order under long sentences.

In 2004, he was prosecuted for the death of Berrios and compromising his stomach and lung, a serious clinical situation for which he is hospitalized in the intensive care unit, and will require surgery for the wounds tomorrow at Victoria hospital. We must remember that these are the very same steel pellets that took the life of our weichafe Alex Lemun in 2002, in addition to being a prohibited type of ammunition in the acting protocols of public order control. It should also be mentioned that an 11 year old minor in the community was also wounded by pellets in various parts of his body, and also needed to go to the doctor's office in Ercilla. There are also others who were wounded in the community who refuse to go to a clinic out of fear of being arrested.

2. Within this context, taking advantage of the fact that the pu lofs' attention was focused on the wounded and the procedures of our arrested peñi, today the cowardly special forces entered once again and stole from our ruka located on the reclaimed land, the wheat that spanned approximately 3 hectares of the harvest carried out yesterday, also seizing a machine intended for agricultural work.

3. In violation of various norms of international law, the official and racist press, especially Radio Biobío, has reported the event as a theft of grain by the community, which is outside of any objectivity and clearly shows the affinity of this media with the ultra-radical right wing of the area. Despite all these actions of the Chilean terrorist state, we will continue in the process of productive reclamation and territorial control, because it is precisely this that the racist and fascist oligarchy of the area does not support. They, together with the neoliberal government of Boric, only seek to keep the Mapuche in a corner begging for crumbs of welfare. Our community remains on its feet and never on its knees and we hold Boric and his policies of good living directly responsible for our Weichafe's difficult health situation, cowardly wounded by a lapdog of those who rob from our people. We will soon announce a series of actions that we will follow and convene.

4. Lastly and categorically, we reject the official version of events that the carabineros presented to public opinion of crop theft by our community. We have planted and therefore we are within our legitimate right to harvest our food.

another construction site for an industrial wind farm also saw its machinery go up in smoke. And in July 2022, in the municipality of Arauco (Bío Bío region), the two technical maintenance buildings of a wind farm that is operational went up in flames.

On June 18, the Órgano de Resistencia Territorial (ORT) Williche Millalikan, a member of CAM (Coordinadora Arauco Malleco), claimed responsibility for the destruction of these fifteen construction machines, stating "Forestry companies and all capitalist investment, out of Wallmapu! In memory of weychafe Toño*, two years after his execution by carabinieri in the service of forestry contractors."

Fiery Demo at Manuel Barros Borgoño High School in Memory of Mauricio Morales

On Monday, May 22, leaflets and banners were displayed, barricades and molotov confrontations were deployed against the presence of carabineros (COP) in memory of comrade Mauricio Morales 14 years after his death in the context of the explosive attack against the Gendarmerie School.

Banners and pamphlets were read: "The press points, the police shoot", "With memory intact, Mauricio Morales is with us. In your action we find the example of putting words into practice, attacking prison scum. That is why we make your name present in every bomb and keep your memory alive, vindicating your endurance, solidarity, uniqueness and happiness... Mauri, the offensive does not forget you" and "Fighting youth, permanent insurrection".

Words for comrade Punky Mauri by anonymous

May 25, 2023

Anarchist history is not a sequence of simple and isolated acts, although many would like it to be; to speak of the adventurers, the crazy poets of history, the unwavering ones with heroic personalities, to fill the chronology of some novelistic book of those who hide behind academic titles or some cushy and comfortable desk. But our history could not be further from that – a multitude of sparks, of attempts without pretension or arrogance, voluntary impulses of determined individualities that await neither the conditions nor the moment, that unite freely or act alone always with the same ungovernable pulse.

Fourteen years have passed since that autumn charged with chaos, when one of our own left us in a May full of anarchic spirit. Punky Mauri some called him, Mauricio Morales Duarte was his name in the official records. That night changed the course of the winds for his immediate surroundings, but it was also a call for the anarchic multiverse around the world.

Balancing a black memory with an active spirituality, without falling into those pseudo shamanic visions that are sold today as holy cards of new age saints, is a challenge from the deepest iconoclastic feeling.

Our position could not be farther away when the need to believe becomes an absurdity and ends up raising up figures as martyrs and heroes.

It is necessary, vital to burst their mausoleums of revolt and to recover our comrades. To continue dialoguing with them, with their feelings-thoughts-gestures-actions and other concerns that are part of all beings in their simple and complex existence.

To insist on this dialogue with the dead in this horizontal spirituality of mutual respect where we converge and disagree.

We refuse to forget because we value our loved ones without ever idealizing their existence, with successes and mistakes we embrace them because we are clear that their work was sincere.

Punky Mauri the offensive does not forget you and continues to insist on chaos and anarchy.

Necessary Words: After 15 Years in Prison Text from comrade Marcelo Villaroel

March 15, 2023

I have been in prison for 15 uninterrupted years. 22 months in Patagonia, territory occupied by the Argentine state where I was detained and the other 13 years and 2 months in the maximum and high security sections of Santiago and Rancagua where I write these words today.

Necessary words as an unequivocal reference of the passage of time and its implications.

As an inescapable trace of a memory oiled with the gasoline that has ignited thousands of barricades and implacable fires demanding the release of anarchist and subversive prisoners throughout the years of struggle and resistance inside Chilean prisons.

For 15 years, I have been living in high and maximum security confinement regimes in which sensory deprivation tends to be normalized along with the hostilities of the environment, the structure and the whole internal order of the daily life of prison. The goal is to break your will and make you a citizen prisoner, respectful of all its repressive and authoritarian internal order built to break the indomitable spirit of those of us who walk with our heads held high, dignified and without fear within the prison reality through which we have had to pass.

Even from captivity, I have seen and experienced the oblivion and amnesia of most people, the comfort and the conveniences of many, the complicit silence and the artful attack of the press and the police, their politicians and all those who in some way or another have made us invisible, defamed and attacked us from the comfort of a computer, from their comfort zones, from their privileged positions as harmless citizens servile to the normality of the existent.

But I'm still here!!

Aware that I am waging a daily struggle for life and liberty together with my pack, comrades and kindred spirits scattered in different parts of the planet. Aware of the state vengeance that perpetuates my imprisonment using the lowest trickery that power uses to justify a concealed life sentence that they can't even explain in legal terms, and only apply it because they control the country and the monopoly of violence turned into law.

That is why today I am not imprisoned by the Chilean rule of law but rather held hostage for reasons of state in Boric's Chile.

When there is no legal justification and domination uses this to annihilate the resistance embodied in people who fight in all scenarios without bending at its own convenience, it is because the decree of the state is above any democratic position boasted by all those who affirm the current state of affairs. This includes positions which justify the current government and its functional citizen bullshit to the status quo, allowing the foul advance of the policing of life; those positions which base social tranquility on the extension of repressive laws along with the maintenance of a large repressive apparatus disguised as democratic stability to, obviously, perpetuate the privileges of the ruling class.

With the strength and clarity given to me by each one of the complicit hearts from different places and territories, with the necessary temperance to maintain the subversive anti-authoritarian resistance in prison konektado With my heart and mind I greet and embrace with all the insurrectionary love to each compañerx and hermanx who have never lowered their arms in this fight to death against the state, the prison and the Kapital.

With the strength and clarity that each of the complicit hearts from different places and territories give me, with the necessary temperance to maintain the subversive anti-authoritarian resistance in prison, connected with my heart and mind, I greet and embrace with all my insurrectionary love each comrade and relative who has never given up their arms in this fight to the death against the state, prison and capital.

For the enemies of yesterday and today – nothing! To Alfredo Cospito, light of world-wide struggle against prison society...

For all the anarchist, subversive, antiauthoritarian comrade prisoners of all tendencies in Greece, Italy, Chile, Spain, Byelorussia, Russia, USA and the whole world...

Mapuche Political Prisoners of Lebu, Angol, and Temuco in Solidarity with Temucuicui and Pilmaiken Against Escalated Government Repression

Mapuche political prisoners of the Lebu, Angol, and Temuco prisons issue communiques demonstrating their solidarity and concern faced with the events that represent escalated repression against communities in resistance by the current government. They also mention the three Mapuche political prisoners in the Angol prison – Palacios Cañuta, Simón Huenchullan Millanao and Jorge Palacios Cañuta, who have been on hunger strike since February 27 for their transfer to CET (Study and Work Centre) in Victoria. From Lebu they say they are alert to this situation and do not rule out the possibility of mobilizations. At the same time they call for the communities in resistance and Mapuche autonomist movement to strengthen themselves in the face of what is a clear persecution on the part of the current social democratic government and in conjunction with sectors of the ultra-right and those which are historically anti-Mapuche. The repressive policies are deepening in order to ensure extractive capitalist investments in Wallmapu (the great Mapuche territory). Public Declaration of Mapuche Political Prisoners of Lebu Prison:

To our Mapuche Pueblo Nation, to the Lov and communities in resistance, to the various support networks in the cities, to the Chilean people, the mapuche political prisoners in Lebu prison state the following:
As mapuche political prisoners we watch with indignation how a government which boasts being different and progressive deepens the repressive policies against our pueblo.
Today the mapuche political prisoners in Angol prison are on hunger strike demanding that the state comply with the agreement signed between then regional director of the Gendarmería in La Araucanía and the former Minister of Justice, Marcela Ríos, so that the provisions of the OIT Convention 169 are respected. As mapuche political prisoners of Lebu prison we are in solidarity with the 3 brothers who are on hunger strike in Angol and we demand that Convention 169 be respected once and for all.

Faced with this situation as PPM (mapuche political prisoners) Lavkenche we declare ourselves in a state of alert and do not rule out the possibility of mobilization in support of the above demands. We also send our fraternal greetings and our full support to the peñi/lamuen of Pilmaiken and Temucuicui after the latest acts of robbery and repression by the military police who are taking over the entire Wallmapu.

First they stole our territory and now they plunder our food, making it clear that the Boric government has no real interest in trying to resolve the territorial conflict, but rather is determined to intensify the colonial and repressive policies against the mapuche autonomist movement, creating conditions for extractive companies to continue plundering our territory.

Finally we call on all the communities that are in the daily struggle against the state to strengthen the weichan and prepare to defend what has been reclaimed, given that everything indicates that the Boric government has given its full political backing to the usurpers and their guard dogs, police and military, who are stalking our territory.

Down with the plantations!
Loggers, military and yanakonas* out of Wallmapu!
Norwegian dams out of Pilmaiken!
Respect Convention 169 and freedom for all PPM.
Territory and autonomy.

Anarchist and Subversive Prisoners: Greeting to Mapuche People in Struggle against Repression and Dispersal of Prisoners in Chile.

From the particularities and in autonomy, each with their gaze and worldview, we have in the direct struggle the same enemies: the State, the prison and capitalism. In confrontation with these we have had to face persecution, prison and death, circumstances of this continuous and incessant walk of anarchic and subversive resistance. The same racist military and police state that pursues, imprison and kills, today articulates a policy of dispersal and isolation towards the Peñi; nothing new for power and their jailers, who seek in this dispersion to dismantle an ancestral struggle. Previously, anarchists and subversives were transferred to this Rancagua prison/company; today, it is the Peñi Juan and Fabián who face their own passage through these walls.

Our solidarity with the struggle of the Mapuche people has been a constant for decades and it is within this practice that today we grasp the hand and fist of our brothers, aware of their hunger strike against the dispersal and we join in a cry of war with the conviction of fighting against a common enemy that today demands a new relationship between those who struggle for the Weichan and we who do it along the path of social war. Building a path of brotherhood implies strengthening reciprocity ties, breaking with all those practices that do not contribute, knowing that the conflict does not stop as well as our prisoners, fugitives and dead.

Much Newen to all Lof and communities in struggle and resistance. A hug in resistance to all Mapuche prisoners whose dignity continues in Weichan in state prisons. Anarchist, subversive and Mapuche prisoners out of prisons now!!

Death to the State!
As long as there is misery there will be rebellion!

Claim for the explosive attack against Fundación Paz Ciudadana by the Brigadas Anárquicas Luis Ramírez Olaechea (Providencia, Chile, May 22, 2023)

Those who have been here, in the minority and diffuse practice, know that failing an attack is part of the many probabilities that arise in the bravery of the street, when we believe that everything is going well, we are surprised that something escapes from what was arranged and planned.

Deciding on an electrical system to detonate an explosive charge is not a whimsical decision, it is the result of studying the objectives, our forces and our resources for action. With a quick entry and withdrawal from the environment we prioritize the safety of our comrades, understanding that the materials at our disposal come and go, while the life and freedom of our brothers and sisters is the most valuable component of the arsenal.

These bitter situations are softened when we know from practice that although the State, police and prosecutors are careful to protect their territories, neighbourhoods, institutions and infrastructures, the attack is still possible in contexts of control and passivity. The attack does not come to life in fervent virtual slogans, it is a threat when it bursts into the streets.

In the face of a mistake we could remain comfortably silent but we are proud to persist in action, charged with memory and militant solidarity. We take the words of the comrades in Bolivia, “Long live all the efforts of the anarchic struggle!” because to advance vertiginously along the paths of confrontation is a victory for our revolutionary horizons. We continue, we know that nothing is over and everything continues, and that our only defeat will be not to try.

On the objective

On April 2, 1992, a gang dressed in suits and ties burst into a large house located on the corner of Valenzuela Castillo and Marchant Pereira streets in the Providencia district in broad daylight to found what we know today as the Fundación Paz Ciudadana (Citizen Peace Foundation). No newspaper or television channel dared to treat them as high-risk criminals, despite the fact that among the attendees that afternoon were Agustín Edwards (great financier of the socio-political destabilization in the '70s) and other prominent figures of Chilean political corruption such as Carlos Alberto Délano, as well as Nicolás Ibáñez, a well-known ultra-right-wing businessman, who when he ran D&S boasted a life-size bust of Pinochet in the middle of his living room, and other members of Chile's most powerful business groups such as Bernardo Matte and Guillermo Luksic.

Fundación Paz Ciudadana emerged when the longed-for social peace of the agreed transition was cracking and a hard blow was dealt to one of the country's wealthiest families. A split of the Frente Patriótico Manuel Rodríguez kidnapped Cristián Edwards, Agustín's son. After this event, the need for an anti-crime plan and a new Penal Code became urgent, since the audacity of stalking the magnates of this estate could not be allowed. From then on, the country's managers were promoting modifications and renewed penal policies defended by Paz Ciudadana, which through (not so) technical reports and mediocre statistics in hand, shielded the bills that at the end of the day only sought to protect private property and the peace of large business groups and the upper echelons of power.

Far from the already known tactics such as paralyzing trucks, de-supplying the population and financing right-wing paramilitary groups, new times were approaching where the political-business union was necessary since these new policies could not be implemented only with the sole desire of the business community; it was necessary to seek votes that would allow the approval of each of these new laws. The ambitious project managed to bring together the political and business world, absorbing multiple figures of the moment, mainly from the Concertación. “I sign everything Paz Ciudadana says” said Ricardo Lagos in 2005, demonstrating that the importance of this sinister Foundation also covers the bidding of the government of the day. We have attacked Paz Ciudadana because from its innocent repressive laboratory it has strived year after year to create a climate of insecurity that only seeks the implementation of laws that wall off the privileges, goods and peace of the most powerful, because for Paz Ciudadana there are no corporate thefts that have systematically affected most people and that paradoxically are the ones that have caused more damage in the daily lives of people, nothing like that. Paz Ciudadana does not know about

In La Pincoya, barricades and confrontations were set up, resulting in the completely burning of a bus of the Red system at the intersection of Américo Vespucio and Recoleta.

Four carabineros barracks were attacked, among them the 20 Police Station in Puente Alto, 62 Police Station in San Bernardo, 54 Police Station in Huechuraba and 45 Police Station in Cerro Navia. Other data and facts can be seen – for example, a total of 6,386 carabineros were deployed throughout the territory. And in the Metropolitan Region alone, a total of 2,359 – in the report of the Undersecretary of the Interior [4].

In all the instances described above, among others, banners and pamphlets read: “Only those who are forgotten truly die”, “Simon Wenchuan, Jorge and Pedro Palacios”, “Young combatant, get organized and fight. Enough of turning the other cheek”, “The discontent grows and the organization gets stronger. 29m”, “Nothing is over, nothing is forgotten. Luis Aguirre - father of Paulina Aguirre -, the son of Cristian Valdebenito and relatives of the disappeared, a procession was held from the memorial of those detained and disappeared during the dictatorship to the tomb of the Vergara Toledo family.

In Temuco, in the vicinity of the central campus of the Universidad de la Frontera (UFRO), there was an arson attack where barricades were set up and rebels confronted the presence of COP. In addition, a group of masked individuals attacked a branch of the company Telsur of the Gtd group with Molotov cocktails.

In Valparaíso, in the vicinity of Pedro Montt Avenue, a large number of people marched with banners and barricades. Different activities were also organized in Concepción.

From the prison-company Santiago 1, informative conversations were held among prisoners, a mural was made and a banner was displayed saying “March 29th, in the street and in prison we are still at war”.

At nightfall, the intensity of the actions and confrontations increased. In Villa Francia a commemorative act was held at Las Rejas and 5 de Abril, where the memorial of Rafael and Eduardo Vergara Toledo is located. Manuel Vergara addressed some words of memory and strength for his sons and those who every year come to vindicate the struggle of the combative youth.

Around 9:30 p.m., different media reported the total burning of two buses of the Red system by masked people, while at the same time the first barricades and molotov confrontations were launched against the presence of COP. Without calming the conflict and resistance, an armoured car crashed into a tree and a pole, its vision obstructed by the fire of the Molotov cocktails burning on the windshield, forcing two police officers who were inside to get out. It was then that the masked ones launched a firearms attack, shooting one of them in the buttock. He was taken to the Carabineros Hospital where it was confirmed that he was not in serious danger. The director general of Carabineros, Ricardo Yáñez, denounced: “There are graphic images of what happened on the scene. It was a vile attack with firearms and also with incendiary weapons. I want to condemn it categorically, the carabineros defended themselves, they made use of their firearms...”.

An 18-year-old was also shot with a bullet in his left cheek. According to his testimony, he suffered the impact when he was walking along 5 de abril and Aeropuerto. It is believed that the bullet came from one of the carabinero guns (COP). The following day Labocar carried out an analysis at 5 de abril to look for possible perpetrators of the shooting of the carabinero.

In Lo Hermida the day began with a cultural political act, with performances from artists from the territory and different social organizations, in addition to a vigil at the memorial of disappeared detainees in Peñalolén. This ended with a march through the passages of the neighbourhood to Grecia Avenue where barricades and molotov confrontations were launched against the presence of COP.

abusive interests, collusion, police abuse, narcocorruption or tax fraud. Paz Ciudadana has never spoken out about massive thefts such as the tragedy of Casas Copeva, where 600 families were swindled by a construction company belonging to the Pérez Yoma family (one of its first directors) who had to sleep whole winters over puddles of water, mushrooms and peeling plaster, resisting the humiliating cold that made many children ill and ended up undermining the lives of thousands of people.

In practice, the reforms to the Penal Code promoted by this foundation resulted in more preventive imprisonment and higher sentences for situations which, compared to the millions of dollars defrauded in suits and ties, are quite illusory. A few years after the Foundation’s siege for the protection of its promoters’ assets began, a profitable managerial venture began to take hold: concessioned prisons. This prison business was defended by Paz Ciudadana from its beginnings to date, evidencing the business agreements with the foundation and the large amount of capital that sustains this alliance. The profitable private security business started at that time is materialized today in the countless companies of guards, alarms and municipal police, companies that were strategically created by several founders of Paz Ciudadana.

One of the main contributions of this foundation is the media projection – through its high power of interference in the mass media – of an elaborate portrait that describes an internal national enemy, “implacable and powerful”, proposing that an unbeatable society would be much better off if there were no “they” who must be exterminated in a “war”, as if crime were not also the expression of a rotten system from its roots.

If in the '90s a wave of fear was fomented to emphasize the need for security, we are currently living the second largest campaign of this type, with the difference that the militia are in the streets and we are debating in a kind of permanent State of Emergency to now, yes, finish configuring the long-awaited Police Democracy with armies of war assuming public security tasks. In the last few weeks we have seen how a repressive offensive called “Plan Streets Without Violence” has been implemented, where the “feminist”, pluri-policial and “ecologist” government has unleashed the repressive offensive against marginalized and impoverished territories, added to the intransigent call of the political class to incorporate in this repressive agenda the phenomenon of terrorism and subversion.

Currently, there are many foundations that are located in the shadows of power that move without major problems; they are the thinking heads of repressive, racist and extermination policies; with modern, inclusive and friendly speeches, they impose trends and influences in everyday life.

With this action we want to contribute to the harassment against these centres of confluence of the rich and powerful. The list is long, it is only a matter of time before the anarchic offensive reaches the doors of their homes. We will continue to attack the neighbourhoods and centres of power, outwitting their “elite” police of which Minister Tohá is so proud.

“Memory is not just pages in history books. Memory is the force that forges in steel our will to be able to continue the struggle. It is the impulse that pushes us never to turn back. Memory sharpens our hatred and arms our vengeance. Memory is the land where we meet those we lost, those we never knew, those we would like to have by our side in the battle, a battle in which, as long as it continues, our brothers and sisters will live inside thousands of conspiracies planned everywhere around the world, through acts of vandalism and arson, executions, plans to escape from prison, and will never be left in the oblivion of time.” Conspiracy Cells of Fire.

14 years after the death in action of our comrade and brother Mauricio Morales. Combative and insurgent memory, to persist in the powerful fires that nourish our denials.

To Alfredo Cospito, our most affectionate revolutionary greetings. Your extensive hunger strike has demonstrated that anarchist insurrectional action has no borders; on the contrary, it expands creatively and employs all means of struggle against Power.

Long live the seditious fractions and the black urban guerrilla: Francisco, Monica, Aldo and Lucas, we continue to hold our heads high together with you.

Subversive prisoners, anarchists, Mapuche and anti-speciesists to the streets!

22 May 2023

Before Going to Sleep

Before going to sleep I reflect on modernity and I don't get used to the artificial smell Nor to the plastic that envelopes water, nor to machines nor to military helmets, Nor to ties and their suits.

My hands don't get used to the artificial connection in virtual universes Connected lives in wireless networks, my eyes search for the eternal fire of rebellion among the multitude of corpses and only in isolated gazes, the conscious individual emerges with dagger eyes that resist dying in the democratic cemetery.

Before going to sleep I embrace chaos as an idea that liberates my body and my mind Because after all, it makes me feel alive. I do not want to search for the grail that will liberate future societies.

My fingers search for the bloody flight of the destruction of the chains of the rhythmic fire, of the close fire of power and its masters.

Upon sleeping, my actions are designed so that tomorrow, after waking up, I will break the routine, in a solitary action, with my chest like a swollen stone, by the destruction of this and of any society. Do me a favour: see to it that anarchy lives.

Before dying in the sludge of the street we will imitate Mauricio Morales! "Love yourself and be violent, beautifully violent, until everything is destroyed. Remember that whatever violent action against those who promote equality is completely justified for the infinite amount of violence they submit us to. Love yourself and combat terrorism, burn, conspire and sabotage and be violent, beautifully violent, naturally violent, freely violent." Mauri

Santiago: On the Demonstration for Comrade Mauricio Morales and the 81 Prisoners Assassinated in the Fire at San Miguel Prison

The evening of May 8, 2023, Memoria Anticarcelaria held a demonstration for anarchist comrade Mauricio Morales and the 81 prisoners assassinated in the fire at San Miguel Prison.

The activity passed in front of the prison, in the street, without permission, this being a small space of memory won thanks to the courage of family members who lived through the greatest prison tragedy that ever occurred in this ill-fated territory. Remembering Mauri there, his anti-prison essence, becomes vital to continue expanding his memory, ideas and actions. His decision to strike the school of jailers on May 22, 2009 is not fortuitous; the principle of authority walks through those corridors where the future custodians of freedom are prepared. The comrade put the magnifying glass on that place, in the same way that throughout history others have set their sites on the prison and its lairs. As anarchists, we cannot be indifferent to all of the intricacies of prison society, nor can we forget those who gave everything in the attack against them. The activity included live music, words, letters from fellow prisoners, posters and ample black propaganda spread through the streets. In memory of anarchist comrade Mauricio Morales... In memory of the 81 prisoners murdered in the San Miguel prison fire... THE YEARS GO BY, BUT NOTHING IS OVER, EVERYTHING CONTINUES. PUNKI MAURI PRESENT.

March 29: Day of the Young Combatant Report-Back

"Nothing changed in terms of the targeted repression that began to be applied to those who did not want to submit to the transition and to the itinerary of Pinochet's constitution (...) How much young blood was still to be shed in this last year of dictatorship and in the years to come of police democracy of the Concertación*" – Hans Niemeyer, 2015

On March 29, a demonstration was held to commemorate the Day of the Young Combatant, 38 years after its origin [1]. Historically, this date has brought together thousands of people in different parts of the territory who gather, generally, to denounce the dictatorial legacies of the Pinochet regime, extended by the rearrangement of the transition to democracy and, specifically, to give life to the memory of anarchist and subversive combatant youth.

Over time, this day has changed, although always characterized by street confrontations against the institutions of the police: "(...) in its first epoch, Maricio Maigret, Paulina Aguirre and the Vergara Toledo brothers, all militants of the MIR, were remembered. With the passing years, this date has come to incorporate new faces and names of youth who have died in the struggle against capitalism and power: Sebastián Oversluij, who died during a bank expropriation in Pudahuel. Mauricio Morales, attacking the military academy with a bomb. Claudia López, while participating in the barricades during a September 11th demonstration in La Pincoya. Jhonny Cariqueo, killed by a police beating on March 29, 2008. Jacier Recabarren, rebellious child who died in a transit accident." [2] The images multiply and the dates are resignified. It is no longer only the memory of two comrades, it extends to many more who gave their lives in the antagonistic and revolutionary destabilization against a system that maintains a continuum of miseries, persecutions, kidnappings and murders. Moving onto the events, the day began with a student march through the Alameda and Providencia axis, passing through Plaza Dignidad with barricades and brief confrontations against the COP [Carabineros] – who were constantly monitoring and harassing the mobilization. Continuing west, COP pushed the crowd towards Central Station, triggering the usual confrontation with the drug dealers of the Meiggs sector. Vigils were held outside the Liceo de Aplicación, where the Vergara Toledo brothers studied, and at Liceo 7 de Ñuñoa where the death of Tobias was remembered.

These events, along with others at Ñuñoa, the intersections of Aledañas and Yungay, San Bernardo - where 4 government vehicles were damaged - and Concepción, resulted in 36 arrests according to the Undersecretary of Crime Prevention. "Of these, 31 for simple disorderly conduct; one for carrying elements for the preparation of incendiary elements; and one for carrying elements for the preparation of incendiary elements and aggression against a policeman on duty". [3] In the general cemetery, with the participation of Manuel Vergara - father of the Vergara brothers -,

Santiago: Incendiary Demonstration at the University of Chile (JGM)

On Tuesday, March 28, a march was held on the Juan Gómez Millas campus, displaying banners and pamphlets, which then culminated in a roadblock on Grecia Avenue where barricades were set up along with confrontations with Molotov cocktails against the presence of carabineros (COP). Banners were read: “Combatant youth, permanent insurrection. Vergara brothers present” and “With fighting spirit, JGM present”.

Posters and Agitation in the Streets of Santiago in Response to the International Call for Alfredo Cospito

Responding to the international call for mobilization in solidarity with Alfredo Cospito’s hunger strike against the disgusting 41bis and life imprisonment, the early morning of January 25 we went out to walk the streets of the center of the capital with propaganda and paste to spread information about Alfredo’s situation.

We also took advantage of the occasion to agitate for the subversive prisoner Marcelo Villarroel and

First Arson Attack of the Year at Barros Arana Boarding School in Santiago

On Thursday, March 9, the first arson attack took place at the Barros Arana Boarding School (INBA), a high school which last year was quite active in the dynamics of street struggle against the Carabineros (COP) and an adjacent military regiment. The presence of masked students exceeded 40, responding to the call of “Mochilazo” along Alameda to exert pressure against Boric’s government.

Colonel Pedro Alvarez Ortega of the Central Santiago Prefecture commented: “There were Molotov bombs thrown and incendiary barricades set up (...) Between 25 and 30% were white overalls. We have no information regarding any damage to the interior, only what I have just commented, we are coordinating with the Army and also with the school’s directors”.

A banner was displayed in solidarity with Alfredo Cospito: “Inba 2023. End to the 41 bis regime. Insurreccional solidarity”.

May the solidarity, heterogeneous and insurrectionary, spread over many regions

“Last March 22nd different anarchist and subversive comrades from the revolt, kidnapped in many prisons of the Chilean state, have begun a hunger strike demanding the repeal of the article 9 and the restitution of the article 1st from the decree of the law 321.

The retroactive character of this law modifies the request’s periods of conditional release, which directly harms prisoners with long sentences, and thousands of prisoners across the region

The prisoners are also demanding the release of Marcelo Villarroel, a subversive prisoner that could have requested conditional release in the year 2019 but, in consideration of the changes of the DL 321, will be given the possibility to request it in 2036. They are also demanding the end of preventive detention as a punitive tool.

 Freedom to Marcelo Villarroel and every anarchist, subversive, mapuche, political prisoner.
 May the cages explode!”

March 29: Comunicqué of Pablo Bahamonde Ortiz “Bear,” subversive prisoner on hunger strike from Santiago 1 jail

On days like today are many brothers and sisters that come to memory... Time has passed, but at every moment of my life they are always present in my being, picking up all the experience and wisdom of their Steps. To mention each one would make for an extensive list, the diverse circumstances of their falls shows that times are not so different in how much the blows that power executes those who challenge the comfort of the powerful. Blood, pain and rage is transformed into a path of destruction and creation that has no end. From this humble reflection, I take air and continue irreducibly.

Understand that imprisonment is just a probable scenario of the Life, for those who choose to break the normality and legality of power. Punishment and isolation as a method of achieving repentments will be the result they will find for our undominated bodies and minds.

The continuity of the fight is a permanent construction, infinite and Multiform with insurrectionary and insolent character that confronts oppression, Misery and exploitation. From this place, the call will always be for the exacerbation of the conflict, preparation, feeling and living subversive praxis, breaking the old, dogmatic, moralistic, patriarchal, authoritarian and toxic logics that only cause damage and mistrust inside collectives and conscious individuals. Always, the struggle of our Brothers and Sisters kidnapped by the Status will be the task that complements the fight that daily thousands of You contribute to in the various spaces of offensive resistance.

It is urgent to multiply and strengthen complicity networks, generating various actions for demanding freedom without conditions for thousands of us that find ourselves behind these walls. Solidarity must give that exquisite offensive and combative jump that historically reflects Steps of thousands who have fallen in this fight.

The enemy day by day is lurking and it is time to return the blows... It's time to put into practice that the control mechanisms will be unusable for those who assume the roads of total liberation with conscience and heart.

April 27, 2021

After 12 days of hunger strike Juan tells us today that he is well and in a good mood. He has lost 3 kg and his blood pressure, blood glucose and weight are checked every day. He has not yet decided how long he will continue the strike.

Words of Anarchist Comrades Mónica and Francisco in View of the Upcoming Trial

Justice is already fine-tuning all the details for his big party, he will choose his best outfit and meticulously sharpen his sword. Nothing can go wrong at the moment when he shows himself for what he is: the executioner of the powerful.

The sword of justice has been kept in storage waiting for the key moment to strike the right blow to our bodies. That moment translated into punitive punishment will find its climax in the oral trial, which is already set for May 19. This trial is expected to be a long process of several months. During the month of March we were preparing for the oral trial – an instance prior to the trial – where the court, which until now had conducted our criminal proceedings, decided on the basis of what our next trial will be.

Basically, in the trial, the entire the legal process through which we were convicted for the placement of an explosive device in the Basilica del Pilar in Zaragoza will be used against us, as well as practically all the documented evidence of the prosecution, ranging from pamphlets to anarchist books found in our homes.

The recycling of the already closed case in Spain is part of the stubborn insistence of the prosecutor to validate all the antecedents that position us as repeat offenders of the same crimes.

We are approaching difficult days and the outlook ahead is complex. We will once again be sitting on the bench of the accused for the actions we are being charged for and for the propagation of the ideas and practices that are antagonistic to domination that we have always upheld, no matter how many years we risk being sentenced to. We have waited for this moment for almost 3 years, in which we have constantly tried to be coherent with our ideas and to establish the necessary harmony with like-minded environments of comrades in the street, avoiding falling into the recurring welfarism, giving way to genuine revolutionary solidarity.

We are proud of the road we have chosen and traveled, without leaving aside the indispensable self-criticism that allows us to grow. May our mistakes serve others who are passionate and love the beautiful moments of confrontation against Power, which are where we feel most alive. These are moments of life that the Italian State intends to take away from the anarchist comrade Alfredo Cospito, condemning him to a gradual and brutal death. May the determination and will of the comrade be a nightmare for the powerful wherever they are.

Anarchist and subversive prisoners to the streets!
Long live anarchy!
